Via New and Erie R. R.

N. Y. Office, 193 Broadway.

SPECIAL FREIGHT NOTICE!

THIS company having lately made more full and perfect arrangements than heretofore had, beg to call attention to their facilities for the

RAPID TRANSPORTATION

of all classes of merchandise, between the eastern cities and manufacturing towns, and places west, northwest and south-west. We offer the following advantages:—From and after this date our fast Express Train will be run from Jersey City every day (Sundays excepted) direct for Dunkirk, making close connection with our trains on Lake Shore Railroad for all places westward. Full and complete arrangements have been perfected by which can be made than has heretofore been made or attempted by any freight line. Our business is under the control and management of experienced transportation men. We have capable and responsible agents at all principal points of transfer and delivery, and our freight is carried in cars under our own control—all of which ensure safety and despatch; added to which

Quicker Time

Our Rates will at all Times be as Low as by the Regular Railroad Lines.

Great care will be taken to guard against over charges, losses or damages, but should any occur, claim therefor will be promptly examined into and adjusted.
SHIPPING DIRECTIONS.—Mark packages "Valentine Express." Procure Bills of Lading on the day of Shipment. For rates of freight, contracts, bills of lading and directions, apply to IRA JUSTIN, Jr., Agent,

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.
Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,000,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

The solid service long and successfully tried, and the many advantages the Ætna Insurance Company possess in its line, should not be overlooked by those ready to insure and understanding their bests interests.
During "stringent times" the necessity for reliable Insurance becomes an imperative duty—the ability of property holders to sustain loss being then much lessened.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS, - - $450,000

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at loss rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

THESE popular BITTERS possess all the nourishing and invigorating properties of PURE OLD BOURBON WHISKEY, and are considered the most efficacious TONIC and STIMULANT, as well as the most agreeable STOMACHIC ever offered to the public. As a Tonic for Old People, delicate Ladies, convalescent invalids, and all weakly people, they cannot be surpassed: in all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their merits over all other Tonics now in use. For LUNG COMPLAINTS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASES AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, they are an invaluable Remedy; and are a certain preventative of CHILLS AND FEVERS.

Put up in Quart Bottles, in cases of one and two dozen, and for sale by Druggists and Grocers everywhere.

The Troubles of the Douglas Politicians.

The "irrepressible conflict" which appeared at Charleston was nothing in comparison to what will occur at Baltimore on the 18th of June. There will be a new set of delegates elected in the place of the seceders, while the seceders themselves give out that they intend to "come back" and claim their places. Here is a chance for a row. If they do, it is not at all impossible that they will be admitted, for the New York delegation appear to be able to decide the question, as they did the continuance of the two-thirds rule, after the seceders left. The Albany Atlas gives out that "men are of little consequence," and that they must nominate a man most likely to win popular favor. The New Yorkers are after the spoils, and will be perfectly willing to drop Douglas, if necessary to accomplish that object. Our north-western democrats have risked all the chances on Douglas—if he goes under, they sink with him. This kind of fidelity may be very admirable as a sentiment, but New York politicians do not believe in it, nor do they practice it. The Atlas enforces this idea, and it will be interesting for the Wisconsin democrats to read what it says. It remarks that "no pride of opinion or mere self-will in the matter of selecting a standard-bearer in this important presidential campaign should defeat all candidates and prevent any nomination." This means, that when the time comes, the New Yorkers are determined "to go in on the winning side."

While the New Yorkers, who hold the fate of Douglas in their hands, talk in this way, the Washington Star, another democratic organ, compares Douglas to Aaron Burr, and fancies that it finds a striking affinity in the character of the two men, as well as a strong resemblance in the circumstances in which they are placed. Burr, it says, was surrounded and abetted by the most unscrupulous band of disappointed office seekers, disbanded military men and would-be-plunder-mongers that the country contained, and he sought to defeat the evident will of the democratic majority, who sustained Jefferson, and through the assistance of such allies to seize upon the presidency by a coup de main. "There was then as little pretence that he was the choice of the democracy for the presidency, though sustained by them for the vice-presidency, as at this time there is a substantial reason to believe that Douglas is the presidential choice of the constituents of the effective portion of the late Charleston convention—quite as little. Yet he, Burr, by dint of such assurance, recklessness and cunning, on the part of all the discontented and unprincipled elements engaged in politics, nominally on the democratic side, then banded together, came quite as near cheating the democracy out of the presidency as Douglas came, a day or two since, to cheating them out of the nomination."

With a democratic newspaper talking in this way, it is apparent that the war of Charleston will be transferred to Baltimore with redoubled fury. We think that Forney clearly foreshadows what is to take place. He says: "There is to be no quarter shown him, [Douglas] or any of his friends. He is to be offered up as a sacrifice, and they are to be hunted out of public life. The fact is, no northern man who dares to differ from the pro slavery leaders can ever hope to regain their confidence. He is foredoomed, and this forever."

HOUSTON FOR PRESIDENT.—A large meeting of the friends of Gen. Houston from all parts of the Union was held at the Metropolitan Hotel, last week, after the nomination of Mr. Bell, and the Baltimore, Charleston and all other conventions were repudiated, and a determination expressed that the people will make their own choice for president.

THE SECESSION LEADER.—Yancy, the leader of the secessionists, is a native of Troy, N. Y. His mother subsequently married Rev. Dr. Beman of Troy, and the queer freaks as told of that lady would fill a volume. Yancy was sent to Williams College, but no college could hold him, and the faculty were glad to get rid of him. Yancy, in South Carolina, shot his uncle dead, and was imprisoned for the act fifteen months, and then was sent to congress, where he fought a bloodless duel with Mr. Clingman.—Madison Argus.

A former resident of Troy, who is thoroughly familiar with the personal history of its prominent citizens, tells us that Mr. Yancy is a native of Georgia. His mother, it is true, was the wife of Dr. Beman, but she was a native of Virginia, and was married in Georgia while the Doctor was a teacher in that state. Mrs. Beman, at the time of her marriage in Georgia, was a widow, and Mr. Yancey was a child by her first husband.

DOUGLAS PAINTED BY A DEMOCRATIC FRIEND.—The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Tribune says:

"The discussion in the senate to-day, between Messrs. Clingman and Benjamin, was exceedingly rich. Clingman, who represents Douglas, said he would endorse any of the platforms presented at Charleston, but he did not think the majority platform a politic one. Benjamin scored him roundly for his willingness to throw aside principle in this contest, and went on to expose the duplicity of the Douglasites at Charleston, who, he said, while privately giving assurances to the southern men that they considered them right in theory, tried to get the convention to adopt a platform which could be construed one way in the north, and another way in the south. He gave it as his opinion that before any of them were six weeks older they would find that the democratic party would be re-united upon a platform satisfactory to the south. If it was not, he said he would join "any third party who would guarantee the rights of the south." His speech was one of the most powerful efforts I have ever heard in the senate. He roasted and basted Clingman terribly. Poor Clingman has a hard time of it. He is the only senator from the south who stands up for Douglas, and he gets awfully abused for it."

RAILROADS IN CONNECTICUT.—The whole length of railroads built within the state is 902 miles, constructed at a cost of $19,831,532 04, of which $18,727,717 31 has been paid in. The gross income has been $3,527,903 79, which is an increase of $409,921 64. The net income has been $1,251,797 51, or four per cent. on the cost, showing an increase of $176,392 59.

For the Daily Gazette.

TRULY THEY WERE GREAT MEN.—A Mohammed, who founded a religion which overshadows nearly two-thirds of the entire population of the world up to the present time. An Alexander, who conquered the world by his mighty armies. A Bonaparte, who so far dethroned the ecclesiastical power of the world as to cause the pope to bow to his command. A George Washington, who laid the foundation of the great American republic, and led her armies on to a successful and glorious victory. But a greater benefactor of mankind than either of these will be the man who shall teach how two kernels of wheat may be grown on the same amount of land, and with no great amount of manual labor than it now requires to raise one. J. B. PEMBER.

With this as a motto, I will now proceed to give to the Gazette and Free Press my experience, founded on actual experiments, on the nature and peculiar character of wheat. Wheat has been, is now, and will continue to be the great staple product of our country for commercial wealth; it is the main and leading crop for home consumption: it is the greatest component factor of bread—the real staple of life not only to this, but to foreign nations. Hence arises the great necessity of its cultivation. Where ought it to be grown? On such portions of the earth's surface as possess natural elements for its growth and maturity; and by whom? those who love to gain their bread by the sweat of their brow, with a cheerful heart and smiling countenance, having large heads, well developed brain, a natural love to experiment, and then to profit by, and at the same time to divide the practical knowledge they have thus gained, with others, for the common benefit of all who desire to learn: for, if we would be great, we must be learned, not only theoretically, but practically,—not only that which reads well on paper in the parlor, but that which works well on the land, both in the sunshine and in the shade.

First, almost every kernel of wheat that is properly matured will vegetate even under very unfavorable weather, if covered in the ground at a sufficient depth to retain moisture enough to swell the kernel, which requires but little. Whether sown in the cold of winter, the moderation of spring, the extreme heat of summer, or the maturing season of fall, very few kernels fail to have and to retain their germinating powers until the weather admits of a growth.—Now for the proof: When but a boy, I went to labor for a man of threescore years, who, by the by, was one of the most successful practical wheat-growers I ever knew, living in the western portion of the state of New York. His age had given him chances for information superior to those of most men, and his natural and cultivated turn of mind had, not unworthily, placed him in the front rank of practical and profitable experimental men of any age. His land for spring wheat was fitted already for the seed in the fall; he then sought to take advantage of the January and February thaw to sow his wheat, as it would then come in contact with the ground at once, which he thought was best, as it was not as likely to be picked up by birds, or blown away with the snow. Then, as soon as the frost was gone from the surface so that he could, he would take his team and a heavy brush and go over the ground thoroughly, and that finished the seeding. The freezing and thawing which followed would leave the land light and lively, even though wet when brushed. If he failed from any cause to sow his seed during the thaw, he would seek a light snow in the latter part of winter, as it was more convenient to see where it was sown. His wheat was sure to grow, not having failed for many years. It was earlier, plumper, lighter in color, and heavier than that of his neighbors', sown in the usual way, and on the same soil. Another proof is this: Where threshing is done in the winter, there will be sure to come up a thick mat of wheat, though no pains are taken to cover it up; or, perhaps, it is on sward land,—at all events, on land unplowed and entirely unfitted for the seed. Another proof is, that upon actual experiment, made by myself last spring, of twenty-nine kernels, every one grew. Another of the present spring: I commenced sowing wheat the eighth day of March; the ninth it froze, and continued so until the fourteenth, when I commenced to sow again. It continued to freeze every night to the depth of from two to four inches,—only one night to the depth of four inches,—and did not get clear of frost through the day, when I would sow in the afternoon. I soon found my wheat was beginning to sprout. I continued to sow, and to examine my wheat each day, and, notwithstanding the freezing, it grew from one-eighth to one-fourth of an inch every twenty-four hours; and in the many hundreds of kernels I have taken up and examined, not one was found to fail that was covered one half-inch with dirt. After my first wheat had been sown five weeks, I took from the ground twenty-four kernels which had never been covered with dirt—exposed to the wet and dry, the heat and cold, continually for the whole time, with no appearance of sprouting, but apparently bleached and dead. I planted them in about one and a half inches of dirt, and in a few days every one of them commenced to sprout; soon the spire was seen above the ground, and they have continued to grow finely. I likewise sought ten that had sprouted, and afterwards, on account of cold, drouth and insufficient earth, dwindled and dried up entirely. I planted them the same as the others; eight out of the ten sprouted again and came up, and are doing well. With these and many other proofs on this point, I have become satisfied that there need be no fear for the growing of wheat that has not been badly injured by heat and moisture, if properly sown and covered with earth, even at unusual seasons of the year. I will now leave this part of the question for the present, as I may have recourse to it at some later time.

Next I will take up the peculiar characteristics and manner of the vegetation of wheat. The first perceivable change in the softening of the main body of the kernel by moisture gathered from the earth. The next is the starting of the main tap root, which proceeds from the end of the kernel, and at the center of the chit. This is soon followed by two more, one on each side of the main root; these usually grow from one to two inches in length before the spire or stock blade is seen to start, which starts directly opposite the first roots of the kernel, is large and healthy, and if the influences of moisture, nutrition and heat are favorable, the number of roots will increase to five or seven—rarely if ever numbering more. Their length and growth is materially governed by the depth of tillage, of which I shall have occasion to speak hereafter. I have seen them ten inches long, with almost numberless fibers of different lengths—on deep tillage—when the spire was not more than three inches long; while earlier sown and larger spires—on shallow tillage—had more than five inches of length. The latter had decided advantages of weather and fertility of soil. I have talked with some very good farmers, who think these roots would run to the length of two feet, and they give me very good reasons for believing thus. I find a variety of opinions on the subject; but one thing is certain, I find less difference of opinion among men who have carefully examined and made thorough experimental tests. On the contrary, I find but very little disagreement between those who have founded their faith on realities. The greatest discord always appears to be between the ignorant and the learned, the careless, unobserving and close practical observer, whose judgment is founded on reason and the great law of government, as found to exist in Nature and Nature's God.

In my next I shall speak of the true depth to cover the seed, and the formation of the main spire and its numerous adjuncts. In the intermediate time I would ask that the curious, the inquisitive, or the skeptic to go to his field and examine as far as he can, and see if what I have already said is not true, for I would not ask to arraign my cause before a more safe, powerful, or even fearful tribunal than that of public opinion in this enlightened age and community in which we live.

JOHN B. PEMBER.

Johnstown, May, 1860.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

It is said that the Quakers are gradually disappearing from England. Two hundred years ago their proportion in Great Britain was about one in every one hundred and thirty inhabitants. At present they do not count one in a thousand.

At the municipal election in Philadelphia on Tuesday, over 71,000 votes were polled, of which the democratic candidate for city comptroller had 35,720, and the peoples' candidate 35,713, a majority for the former of only 7 votes.

The Messrs. Gates & Co., of Chicago, have already sold $8,000 worth of their stampers and crushers for the Pike's Peak gold mines, and their orders for machinery of that kind reached $10,000 on Saturday last.

The young ladies of Hopedale, Ill., met to trim a church for some festival occasion, and two men named Findley and McDowell, getting into a fight relative to an alleged insult toward one of the ladies, McDowell drew a knife and killed Findley on the spot.

During the year ending June 30th, 1859, Wisconsin paid postage to the amount of $180,238.

On the first of May, Col. Balcom, of Stiles, laid on the Oconto Pioneer's table, a cucumber measuring thirteen inches in length and five inches in circumference, which he raised in his garden.

Philadelphia citizens lose over one million dollars by the recent decision of the U. S. supreme court, of the celebrated Santillan land case, in which the San Francisco Land Co. claimed a large tract of land adjoining San Francisco. The shares of the company have sold as high as $5,000, their par value being $300, and a great many being held in Philadelphia. The court decided against the company.

Compliments carried to an extravagant extent become offences. There is a material difference between prettily asking for a lock of hair, and taking the whole scalp.

It may be fairly contended that inveterate laziness is the most effective labor-saving machine ever invented.

A BOOK EVERY MAN SHOULD HAVE.—There is no doubt that an almost endless amount of litigation and large expense could be saved to the community, were such ready, explicit and reliable means of information as the "LEGAL GUIDE," and "Business Man's Assistant," placed in the hands of every person, male and female, who have anything to do with business matters, on whatever scale. The farmer or the merchant, the professional man, the woman left to her own resources and her own support, may literally have their own lawyer always by them in one of these admirable little compilations, containing state laws, the most approved legal and business forms, and a complete glossary of legal terms.

The work has just been published in law style of binding by Messrs. J. A. Colby & Co., No. 118 Randolph street, Chicago, and is destined to receive the wide adoption its merits deserve. Every one should have it, and the public in purchasing of the publishers will enjoy the widely celebrated advantage of that house. We advise our readers to send to send to Mr. Colby for the Legal Guide, price $1.00, 21 cents in addition, if sent by mail, to pay postage, or send for a descriptive catalogue which is mailed free upon application.—Chicago Press and Tribune.

TIME TO PLANT.—Some twenty years since, I thought it desirable to finish planting before the 20th of May. Not so now. Were I obliged to fix some one day when my field planting should be done, it would not be before the 20th, as in most instances the ground is not sufficiently warm till after that time.

The old Indian rule on Cape Cod was, to plant corn when the oak trees got into the grey. That rule I hold to be safe, and as sure as any, as it indicates the forwardness of the season.

What took place at our last meeting warns me that I shall be on the unpopular side by saying that where clay, rather than sand, predominates, in quite one half of our seasons, it is quite as well, and in many instances much better, to plant corn later rather than before the middle of May. I am sure that very many of the grevious complaints we hear uttered about seed corn rotting in the ground, would be unknown if the planting was not done before the ground was in a proper condition to receive the seed. It is an idle dogma to tell me I cannot grow dent corn of the very first quality, if it is not planted before the 20th of May. Why, sir, I know that I have planted yellow dent corn after the 20th of May, and got twice the quantity, and a far better quality, than did several of my neighbors who planted theirs before the 15th.

Tribune's Washington Correspondence, 13th.—It is now ascertained that Mr. Walker, correspondent of the New York Express here, received $2,500 of the money appropriated by Mr. Wendell to carry the English bill through the house. He will be examined to-morrow forenoon or next day.

Attorney General Black has notified Mr. Covode's committee that he desires to be present at the next examination of Mr. Schbatel. A lively time may be expected.

Robt. J. Walker has now obtained all his papers relating to Kansas, and is prepared to close his testimony before the Covode committee. Among them is said to be the original of his inangural address, with interliving made by the President's own hand in regard to submitting the constitution to the people.

The southern address, urging the seceding delegates to return, was written by Mr. Toombs, and characterized by his strong will throughout. Modifications were suggested but nane were adopted, for if it had not been signed as prepared, Mr. Toombs would doubtless have issued it on his own responsibility.

AUGUSTA, GA., May 13.

At a democratic meeting at Atlanta on Saturday, the postmaster defended the Charleston secessionists, and denounced Douglas as a traitor to the democracy and the south. B. C. Yancey made a lengthy and similar speech. The national Baltimore democracy was defended by Col. Gaskill. The meeting adjourned for one week.

DON'T LIKE HIM.—The Waukesha County Democrat takes the defeat of Douglas at Charleston in a very submissive spirit. It says:

"The utter impolicy of pressing the name of Douglas is now apparent to the most superficial politician. The idea of rewarding a man for ruining you, would be considered ridiculous as a business proposition. How very absurd, then, the project of the northwest's being a unit in favor of giving the presidential nomination to a man whose measuses and policy have changed six of the strongest democratic states in the Union, to six more reliable black republican states than New England herself can boast? * * * We utter what we feel when we assert, in our judgement there could not fall upon the country a more dire calamity than the nomination and election of Mr. Douglas."

In another view of the case, the Democrat is equally resigned. Speaking of the Kansas-Nebraska bill, it remarks:

"Mr. Douglas betrayed the north in his measure, the covert the design of which was to have Kansas admitted as a slave state into the Union. This fatal measure revolutionized the democratic party in the north west where it had its strongest lodgment.—To obtain a re election to the United States senate from Illinois, Mr. Douglas shrunk from carrying out the logical conclusions of the policy he inaugurated,—viz.: in the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton constitution,—and thus betrayed his pledges to the south. The south has had sufficient self-respect and dignity to resent and punish the treachery, and in doing so she has incidentally rendered great service to the Union and the cause of sound public morals. It affords us pleasure to accord her the praises which are her due. May the sordid and truckling politicians of the northwest and of the Union, profit by the lesson."

SIRS:—For years past I have given to Wm S. Bailey, editor of the Free South newspaper, letters asking the friends of liberal opinions in the United States and elsewhere to aid him by pecuniary donations. STRIPED BUG.—The season is rapidly approaching for the planting of melons, cucumbers and squashes; a word, therefore, on the different remedies used as preventives, cures, etc., of the striped bug may not be uninteresting to some of our readers.

Within the last few years a number of remedies have been published from various sources, such as chip water, wood ashes, soot, scotch snuff, tobacco dried and powdered fine, chamomile flowers, etc. Some of the above remedies do not keep the bugs away during their applications, others but for a short time. The difficulty in the use of the most of them is, their removal from the plants by dews or rains, and therefore to insure success frequent applications are necessary. For a number of years we have used charcoal dust, putting about one quart on the melon or cucumber hills before the plants are up; it has invariably kept the plants from being injured by the insects. Last year we used the Persian Insect Powder on a few hills of cucumbers, and with satisfactory results—by two applications we saved all the vines.

A few weeks since, a gentlemen at the Farmers' Club, American Institute, stated that he had kept the bugs from the vines last year by syringing them with a solution of aloes. The formula he gave was—dissolve half an ounce of aloes in a gallon of water, and it will be of sufficient strength. Syringe the vines once or twice during the early stage of their growth. We have not tried this remedy but intend to do so this season.—Cor. Working Farmer.

SEQUEL TO A TRAGEDY.—Our readers will generally remember the Mercer and Herberton tragedy that occurred in Philadelphia many years since. A man of some wealth and social position named Herberton, had seduced Miss Mercer, a young woman of seventeen, and refused to repair the matter by marriage. A brother took vengeance into his own hands, waylaid the seducer in a ferry boat and shot him dead. For this he was tried for murder and acquitted. Since that period he led a wild career, and finally about two years since, was shot in a restaurant in Philadelphia. The sister was married a few years subsequent to the death of Herberton, lived unhappily with her husband, was divorced, and we find her death recorded in an exchange. The whole family have now passed away.

SAFETY AND ECONOMY!

NON-EXPLOSIVE BURNING FLUID

Having purchased the sole right to manufacture and sell Prof. Greenough's Non-Explosive Burning Fluid, and having fully tested the same before many of our best citizens who are all satisfied of its important advantages over any fluid in use, I am prepared to supply all with this valuable article, and at the same price as the ordinary explosive fluid. It is used in the same lamps with no extra expense to consumers. It gives bright, clear light, is more durable, and it is free from the dangerous properties.

Any person can satisfy himself of its merits by calling and witnessing experiments.

MOST EXTRAORDINARY RESULTS

FROM THE USE OF

WINCHESTER'S GENUINE

Hypophosphites

IN THE CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

I need only call the attention of all Consumptive sufferers, whether in advanced or the incipient stage of the disease, to the following extract from a letter addressed to me by a physician of great experience, and extensive practice in Chester Co., Pa. The voluntary evidence of professional men, such as that of Dr. Townsend, ought to convince the most skeptical of the extraordinary efficacy of my preparation of Hypophosphites:

CHATHAM, PA., 3d Month, 26th, 1860.

FRIEND J. WINCHESTER:— * * Thirty-six persons have obtained the medicine from me, twelve of whom have been under my own care. Five of them were, in my opinion, and in the judgment of other physicians, hopeless cases of Phthisis—irritable cough, copious expectorations of a purulent character, night sweats and emaciation. These cases were from one to three years' standing. Auscultation and percussion developed sounds which, taken in connection with other symptoms, gave evidence of a condition from which I have never, in seventeen years' practice, seen a single case recover by any other treatment. * * Under the use of the Hypophosphites, all the bad symptoms ceased; they have gained flesh and strength and health—some of them better than they had enjoyed for seven years previously.

The other cases under my care were in the incipient stage, and in them all symptoms and traces of the disease have disappeared. Of those who were not under my care, I have not heard of a single patient who himself benefitted by the use of the remedy, although in some of them the disease was too far advanced to admit the possibility of recovery.

I presume I am as skeptical in medicines or specifics as most physicians; yet, from the experience I have had in the use of Dr. J. F. Churchill's Remedy for Tuberculosis, I would say to all who have a tendency to that disease—take it, and the sooner the better, before there is any disorganization. * * *

The Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda

act with promptness and certainty in every stage of Consumption, and with invariable efficacy in all derangements of the nervous and blood systems, general debility, dyspepsia, asthma, rickets, female complaints, spermatorrhea, in all disorders dependent on imperfect or impaired nutrition, and in all cases of local or constitutional debility. They increase the nervous or vital energy, relieve cough, check night sweats, diminish expectoration, improve the appetite, arrest diarrhoea, promote refreshing sleep, and create new and healthful blood. A fair trial is a certain cure.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation

of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, is the only reliable form of Dr. Churchill's remedy, and is approved by the medical profession generally. Use no other or any remedy containing iron.

Republican National Convention.

As the day approaches for the assembling of the convention, the interest in its result increases, and the efforts of the friends of the various candidates for a nomination are stimulated to greater activity. The contest for the nomination is likely to be spirited, but we do not anticipate anything else than a cheerful acquiescence by all after the selection has been made. Beyond all question, the first choice of this state is Wm. H. Seward. This choice has been manifested by unquestioned exhibitions of public sentiment, and by a resolution of the state convention which appointed the delegates. If a majority of the convention about to assemble shall indicate a preference for some other candidate, we do not look for a factious and useless adherence of the Wisconsin delegates to the man of their choice; their votes ought to be wisely directed to some other known and tried exponent of the principles of the republican party; but until the nomination of the distinguished New York senator is shown to be impossible, or injudicious, in view of the public feeling in other republican localities, the republicans of Wisconsin will expect all their delegates to give a faithful and true expression to their own feelings and preference. Nothing short or less than this will satisfy them, or discharge with fidelity the trust committed to the delegates.

A Good Suggestion.—The Madison Journal has a suggestion in relation to the census of this state that seems to us timely and proper. In the list of questions necessary to be answered by the head of each family is one of this character:—"In the first place, it is necessary to write down the name of every person whose usual place of abode, on the first day of June, 1860, was in the family."

The Journal suggests that it is proper, as well as important, to include all bona fide members of the family, though they may be temporarily absent from the state. Our state ought not to loose from the aggregate of her population, and suffer thereby for ten years to come in the representation in congress and in her electoral vote, those who have rushed for Pike's Peak this spring, with no intention to make that country a permanent abode; who do not propose to forfeit residence or the right of voting in Wisconsin.

If this rule is adopted, and we cannot see why it should not be, a little care on the part of the deputy marshals, and forethought by those giving in the names of their respective households, may secure the enumeration of large numbers of our population otherwise liable to be omitted.

German Republican National Convention.—A national convention of German republicans, consisting of three delegates from each state, will meet in Chicago today. Most of the northern and some of the southern states will be represented.—The object of this convention is not to nominate a candidate for the Presidency, but to compare views, and agree upon a basis of principles which will guide them in extending their support to the nominee who may be placed before the country.

Indignant.—The Milwaukee News is highly indignant about the presecution of Marshal Lewis for illegal voting. It gives free vent to its feelings by declaring that it "had its origin in the worst passions of low and degenerate hearts, who resorted to this method to punish the United States Marshal for not appointing the 1001 applicants to take the census, among whom were some who had the smell of the penitentiary upon them yet. It was amusing to see the sore heads hang around the court room anxious to witness a conviction; we counted six of these worthies in the criminal box at one time, and the expression of their countenances was not unbecoming the seat they occupied."

As the News is a voluntary witness, we are not disposed to disbelieve this testimony of friends it ought, and, probably, does, know thoroughly.

Congressional Printing—Mr. Wendell, the congressional printer, in his testimony before the Covode committee, gave the following statement of the total cost of the printing and binding for congress and the executive departments for the past six years:

Description of work.	Cost.	Average profit, 50 per cent.
Thirty-third Congress	$1,033,360 76	511,680 38
Thirty-fourth Congress	915,107 42	458,583 71
Thirty-fifth Congress	628,851 23	314,425 61
Total	$2,797,499 41	$1,253,689 61
Executive binding (est'd)	230,120 00	116,060 00
Total	$3,027,619 41	$1,337,749 70

Large Trains.—The evening trains to-night over the Michigan Central and the Michigan Southern roads will be very large ones. The Chicago Tribune of Saturday morning says that a gentleman who arrived there Friday was informed by one of the officers of the Great Western Railway, at Hamilton, that fifteen hundred tickets had already been sold for the train through, to arrive in Chicago to-night on the Michigan Central Railroad at 10 P. M.,—sixteen hours from Suspension Bridge.

It is expected that Michigan avenue will be illuminated to greet the arrival of these delegates.

Drought in New England.—An extensive drought is prevailing throughout New England. In New Hampshire, cattle are driven miles for water. Fires in the woods are also doing much damage.

The Troubles of the Douglas Politicians.

The "irrepressible conflict" which appeared at Charleston was nothing in comparison to what will occur at Baltimore on the 18th of June. There will be a new set of delegates elected in the place of the seceders, while the seceders themselves give out that they intend to "come back" and claim their places. Here is a chance for a row. If they do, it is not at all impossible that they will be admitted, for the New York delegation appear to be able to decide the question, as they did the continuance of the two-thirds rule, after the seceders left. The Albany Atlas gives out that "men are of little consequence," and that they must nominate a man most likely to win popular favor. The New Yorkers are after the spoils, and will be perfectly willing to drop Douglas, if necessary to accomplish that object. Our north-western democrats have risked all the chances on Douglas—if he goes under, they sink with him. This kind of fidelity may be very admirable as a sentiment, but New York politicians do not believe in it, nor do they practice it. The Atlas enforces this idea, and it will be interesting for the Wisconsin democrats to read what it says. It remarks that "no pride of opinion or mere self-will in the matter of selecting a standard-bearer in this important presidential campaign should defeat all candidates and prevent any nomination." This means, that when the time comes, the New Yorkers are determined "to go in on the winning side."

While the New Yorkers, who hold the fate of Douglas in their hands, talk in this way, the Washington Star, another democratic organ, compares Douglas to Aaron Burr, and fancies that it finds a striking affinity in the character of the two men, as well as a strong resemblance in the circumstances in which they are placed. Burr, it says, was surrounded and abetted by the most unscrupulous band of disappointed office seekers, disbanded military men and would-be-plunder-mongers that the country contained, and he sought to defeat the evident will of the democratic majority, who sustained Jefferson, and through the assistance of such allies to seize upon the presidency by a coup de main. "There was then as little pretence that he was the choice of the democracy for the presidency, though sustained by them for the vice-presidency, as at this time there is a substantial reason to believe that Douglas is the presidential choice of the constituents of the effective portion of the late Charleston convention—quite as little. Yet he, Burr, by dint of such assurance, recklessness and cunning, on the part of all the discontented and unprincipled elements engaged in politics, nominally on the democratic side, then banded together, came quite as near cheating the democracy out of the presidency as Douglas came, a day or two since, to cheating them out of the nomination."

With a democratic newspaper talking in this way, it is apparent that the war of Charleston will be transferred to Baltimore with re-doubled fury. We think that Forney clearly foreshadows what is to take place. He says: "There is to be no quarter shown him, [Douglas] or any of his friends. He is to be offered up as a sacrifice, and they are to be hunted out of public life. The fact is, no northern man who dares to differ from the pro slavery leaders can ever hope to regain their confidence. He is foredoomed, and this forever."

Houston for President.—A large meeting of the friends of Gen. Houston from all parts of the Union was held at the Metropolitan Hotel, last week, after the nomination of Mr. Bell, and the Baltimore, Charleston and all other conventions were repudiated, and a determination expressed that the people will make their own choice for president.

The Secession Leader.—Yancy, the leader of the secessionists, is a native of Troy, N. Y. His mother subsequently married Rev. Dr. Beman of Troy, and the queer freaks as told of that lady would fill a volume. Yancy was sent to Williams College, but no college could hold him, and the faculty were glad to get rid of him. Yancy, in South Carolina, shot his uncle dead, and was imprisoned for the act fifteen months, and then was sent to congress, where he fought a bloodless duel with Mr. Clingman.—Madison Argus.

A former resident of Troy, who is thoroughly familiar with the personal history of its prominent citizens, tells us that Mr. Yancy is a native of Georgia. His mother, it is true, was the wife of Dr. Beman, but she was a native of Virginia, and was married in Georgia while the Doctor was a teacher in that state. Mrs. Beman, at the time of her marriage in Georgia, was a widow, and Mr. Yancy was a child by her first husband.

Douglas Painted by a Democratic Friend.—The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Tribune says:

"The discussion in the senate to-day, between Messrs. Clingman and Benjamin, was exceedingly rich. Clingman, who represents Douglas, said he would endorse any of the platforms presented at Charleston, but he did not think the majority platform a politic one. Benjamin scored him roundly for his willingness to throw aside principle in this contest, and went on to expose the duplicity of the Douglasites at Charleston, who, he said, while privately giving assurances to the southern men that they considered them right in theory, tried to get the convention to adopt a platform which could be construed one way in the north, and another way in the south. He gave it as his opinion that before any of them were six weeks older they would find that the democratic party would be re-united upon a platform satisfactory to the south. If it was not, he said he would join "any third party who would guarantee the rights of the south." His speech was one of the most powerful efforts I have ever heard in the senate. He roasted and basted Clingman terribly. Poor Clingman has a hard time of it. He is the only senator from the south who stands up for Douglas, and he gets awfully abused for it."

Railroads in Connecticut.—The whole length of railroads built within the state is 902 miles, constructed at a cost of $19,831,532 04, of which $18,727,717 31 has been paid in. The gross income has been $3,527,903 79, which is an increase of $409,921 64. The net income has been $1,251,797 51, or four per cent. on the cost, show an increase of $176,392 59.

For the Daily Gazette.

Truly They were Great Men.—A Mohammed, who founded a religion which overshadows nearly two-thirds of the entire population of the world up to the present time. An Alexander, who conquered the world by his mighty armies. A Bonaparte, who so far dethroned the ecclesiastical power of the world as to cause the pope to bow to his command. A George Washington, who laid the foundation of the great American republic, and led her armies on to a successful and glorious victory. But a greater benefactor of mankind than either of these will be the man who shall teach how two kernels of wheat may be grown on the same amount of land, and with no great amount of manual labor than it now requires to raise one.

J. B. PEMBER.

With this as a motto, I will now proceed to give to the Gazette and Free Press my experience, founded on actual experiments, on the nature and peculiar character of wheat. Wheat has been, is now, and will continue to be the great staple product of our country for commercial wealth; it is the main and leading crop for home consumption: it is the greatest component factor of bread—the real staple of life not only to this, but to foreign nations. Hence arises the great necessity of its cultivation. Where ought it to be grown? On such portions of the earth's surface as possess natural elements for its growth and maturity; and by whom? those who love to gain their bread by the sweat of their brow, with a cheerful heart and smiling countenance, having large heads, well developed brain, a natural love to experiment, and then to profit by, and at the same time to divide the practical knowledge they have thus gained, with others, for the common benefit of all who desire to learn: for, if we would be great, we must be learned, not only theoretically, but practically,—not only that which reads well on paper in the parlor, but that which works well on the land, both in the sunshine and in the shade.

First, almost every kernel of wheat that is properly matured will vegetate even under very unfavorable weather, if covered in the ground at a sufficient depth to retain moisture enough to swell the kernel, which requires but little. Whether sown in the cold of winter, the moderation of spring, the extreme heat of summer, or the maturing season of fall, very few kernels fail to have and to retain their germinating powers until the weather admits of a growth.—Now for the proof: When but a boy, I went to labor for a man of threescore years, who, by the by, was one of the most successful practical wheat-growers I ever knew, living in the western portion of the state of New York. His age had given him chances for information superior to those of most men, and his natural and cultivated turn of mind had, not unworthily, placed him in the front rank of practical and profitable experimental men of any age. His land for spring wheat was fitted already for the seed in the fall; he then sought to take advantage of the January and February thaw to sow his wheat, as it would then come in contact with the ground at once, which he thought was best, as it was not as likely to be picked up by birds, or blown away with the snow. Then, as soon as the frost was gone from the surface so that he could, he would take his team and a heavy brush and go over the ground thoroughly, and that finished the seeding. The freezing and thawing which followed would leave the land light and lively, even though wet when brushed. If he failed from any cause to sow his seed during the thaw, he would seek a light snow in the latter part of winter, as it was more convenient to see where it was sown. His wheat was sure to grow, not having failed for many years. It was earlier, plumper, lighter in color, and heavier than that of his neighbors', sown in the usual way, and on the same soil. Another proof is this: Where threshing is done in the winter, there will be sure to come up a thick mat of wheat, though no pains are taken to cover it up; or, perhaps, it is on sward land,—at all events, on land unplowed and untirely unfitted for the seed. Another proof is, that upon actual experiment, made by myself last spring, of twenty-nine kernels, every one grew. Another of the present spring: I commenced sowing wheat the eighth day of March; the ninth it froze, and continued so until the fourteenth, when I commenced to sow again. It continued to freeze every night to the depth of from two to four inches,—only one night to the depth of four inches,—and did not get clear of frost through the day, when I would sow in the afternoon. I soon found my wheat was beginning to sprout. I continued to sow, and to examine my wheat each day, and, notwithstanding the freezing, it grew from one-eighth to one-fourth of an inch every twenty-four hours; and in the many hundreds of kernels I have taken up and examined, not one was found to fail that was covered one half-inch with dirt. After my first wheat had been sown five weeks, I took from the ground twenty-four kernels which had never been covered with dirt—exposed to the wet and dry, the heat and cold, continually for the whole time, with no appearance of sprouting, but apparently bleached and dead. I planted them in about one and a half inches of dirt, and in a few days every one of them commenced to sprout; soon the spire was seen above the ground, and they have continued to grow finely. I likewise sought ten that had sprouted, and afterwards, on account of cold, drouth and insufficient earth, dwindled and dried up entirely. I planted them the same as the others; eight out of the ten sprouted again and came up, and are doing well. With these and many other proofs on this point, I have become satisfied that there need be no fear for the growing of wheat that has not been badly injured by heat and moisture, if properly sown and covered with earth, even at unusual seasons of the year. I will now leave this part of the question for the present, as I may have recourse to it at some later time.

Next I will take up the peculiar characteristics and manner of the vegetation of wheat. The first perceivable change is the softening of the main body of the kernel by moisture gathered from the earth. The next is the starting of the main tap root, which proceeds from the end of the kernel, and at the center of the chit. This is soon followed by two more, one on each side of the main root; these usually grow from one to two inches in length before the spire or stock blade is seen to start, which starts directly opposite the first roots of the kernel, is large and healthy, and if the influences of moisture, nutrition and heat are favorable, the number of roots will increase to five or seven—rarely if ever numbering more. Their length and growth is materially governed by the depth of tillage, of which I shall have occasion to speak hereafter. I have seen them ten inches long, with almost numberless fibers of different lengths—on deep tillage—when the spire was not more than three inches long; while earlier sown and larger spires—on shallow tillage—had more than five inches of length. The latter had decided advantages of weather and fertility of soil. I have talked with some very good farmers, who think these roots would run to the length of two feet, and they give me very good reasons for believing thus. I find a variety of opinions on the subject; but one thing is certain, I find less difference of opinion among men who have carefully examined and made thorough experimental tests. On the contrary, I find but very little disagreement between those who have founded their faith on realities. The greatest discord always appears to be between the ignorant and the learned, the careless, unobserving and close practical observer, whose judgment is founded on reason and the great law of government, as found to exist in Nature and Nature's God.

In my next I shall speak of the true depth to cover the seed, and the formation of the main spire and its numerous adjuncts. In the intermediate time I would ask that the curious, the inquisitive, or the skeptic to go to his field and examine as far as he can, and see if what I have already said is not true, for I would not ask to arraign my cause before a more safe, powerful, or even fearful tribunal than that of public opinion in this enlightened age and community in which we live.

John B. Pember.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

It is said that the Quakers are gradually disappearing from England. Two hundred years ago their proportion in Great Britain was about one in every one hundred and thirty inhabitants. At present they do not count one in a thousand.

At the municipal election in Philadelphia on Tuesday, over 71,000 votes were polled, of which the democratic candidate for city comptroller had 35,720, and the peoples' candidate 35,713, a majority for the former of only 7 votes.

The Messrs. Gates & Co., of Chicago, have already sold $8,000 worth of their stampers and crushers for the Pike's Peak gold mines, and their orders for machinery of that kind reached $10,000 on Saturday last.

The young ladies of Hopedale, Ill., met to trim a church for some festival occasion, and two men named Findley and McDowell, getting into a fight relative to an alleged insult toward one of the ladies, McDowell drew a knife and killed Findley on the spot.

During the year ending June 30th, 1859, Wisconsin paid postage to the amount of $180,238.

On the first of May, Col. Balcom, of Stiles, laid on the Oconto Pioneer's table, a cucumber measuring thirteen inches in length and five inches in circumference, which he raised in his garden.

Philadelphia citizens lose over one million dollars by the recent decision of the U. S. supreme court, of the celebrated Santillan land case, in which the San Francisco Land Co. claimed a large tract of land adjoining San Francisco. The shares of the company have sold as high as $5,000, their par value being $300, and a great many being held in Philadelphia. The court decided against the company.

Compliments carried to an extravagant extent become offences. There is a material difference between prettily asking for a lock of hair, and taking the whole scalp.

It may be fairly contended that inveterate laziness is the most effective labor-saving machine ever invented.

A Book Every Man Should Have.—There is no doubt that an almost endless amount of litigation and large expense could be saved to the community, were such ready, explicit and reliable means of information as the "Legal Guide" and "Business Man's Assistant," placed in the hands of every person, male and female, who have anything to do with business matters, on whatever scale. The farmer or the merchant, the professional man, the woman left to her own resources and her own support, may literally have their own lawyer always by them in one of these admirable little compilations, containing state laws, the most approved legal and business forms, and a complete glossary of legal terms.

The work has just been published in law style of binding by Messrs. J. A. Colby & Co., No. 118 Randolph street, Chicago, and is destined to receive the wide adoption its merits deserve. Every one should have it, and the public in purchasing of the publishers will enjoy the widely celebrated advantage of that house. We advise our readers to send to send to Mr. Colby for the Legal Guide, price $1.00, 21 cents in addition, if sent by mail, to pay postage, or send for a descriptive catalogne which is mailed free upon application.—Chicago Press and Tribune.

Time to Plant.—Some twenty years since, I thought it desirable to finish planting before the 20th of May. Not so now. Were I obliged to fix some one day when my field planting should be done, it would not be before the 20th, as in most instances the ground is not sufficiently warm till after that time.

The old Indian rule on Cape Cod was, to plant corn when the oak trees got into the grey. That rule I hold to be safe, and as sure as any, as it indicates the forwardness of the season.

What took place at our last meeting warns me that I shall be on the unpopular side by saying that where clay, rather than sand, predominates, in quite one half of our seasons, it is quite as well, and in many instances much better, to plant corn later rather than before the middle of May. I am sure that very many of the grevious complaints we hear uttered about seed corn rotting in the ground, would be unknown if the planting was not done before the ground was in a proper condition to receive the seed. It is an idle dogma to tell me I cannot grow dent corn of the very first quality, if it is not planted before the 20th of May. Why, sir, I know that I have planted yellow dent corn after the 20th of May, and got twice the quantity, and a far better quality, than did several of my neighbors who planted theirs before the 15th.

Tribune's Washington Correspondence, 13th.—It is now ascertained that Mr. Walker, correspondent of the New York Express here, received $2,500 of the money appropriated by Mr. Wendell to carry the English bill through the house. He will be examined to-morrow forenoon or next day.

Attorney General Black has notified Mr. Covode's committee that he desires to be present at the next examination of Mr. Schbatel. A lively time may be expected.

Robt. J. Walker has now obtained all his papers relating to Kansas, and is prepared to close his testimony before the Covode committee. Among them is said to be the original of his inaugural address, with interliving made by the President's own hand in regard to submitting the constitution to the people.

The southern address, urging the seceding delegates to return, was written by Mr. Toombs, and characterized by his strong will throughout. Modifications were suggested but none were adopted, for if it had not been signed as prepared, Mr. Toombs would doubtless have issued it on his own responsibility.

Augusta, Ga., May 13.

At a democratic meeting at Atlanta on Saturday, the postmaster defended the Charleston secessionists, and denounced Douglas as a traitor to the democracy and the south. B. C. Yancey made a lengthy and similar speech. The national Baltimore democracy was defended by Col. Guskill. The meeting adjourned for one week.

The Market.

New York, May 14.

Flour dull, heavy and 5a10c lower, 5,30 super state, 5,30 super western. Wheat dull and heavy, prime Milwaukee club can be bought at 1,28, market nominally 1a2c lower.

Don't Like Him.—The Waukesha County Democrat takes the defeat of Douglas at Charleston in a very submissive spirit. It says:

"The utter impolicy of pressing the name of Douglas is now apparent to the most superficial politician. The idea of rewarding a man for ruining you, would be considered ridiculous as a business proposition. How very absurd, then, the project of the northwest's being a unit in favor of giving the presidential nomination to a man whose measures and policy have changed six of the strongest democratic states in the Union, to six more reliable black republican states than New England herself can boast? * * * We utter what we feel when we assert, in our judgement there could not fall upon the country a more dire calamity than the nomination and election of Mr. Douglas."

In another view of the case, the Democrat is equally resigned. Speaking of the Kansas-Nebraska bill, it remarks:

"Mr. Douglas betrayed the north in his measure, the covert the design of which was to have Kansas admitted as a slave state into the Union. This fatal measure revolutionized the democratic party in the north west where it had its strongest lodgment.—To obtain a re election to the United States senate from Illinois, Mr. Douglas shrank from carrying out the logical conclusions of the policy he inaugurated,—viz.: in the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton constitution,—and thus betrayed his pledges to the south. The south has had sufficient self-respect and dignity to resent and punish the treachery, and in doing so she has incidentally rendered great service to the Union and the cause of sound public morals. It affords us pleasure to accord her the praises which are her due. May the sordid and truckling politicians of the northwest and of the Union, profit by the lesson."

William S. Bailey.

To the Editors of the New York Tribune:

Sirs:—For years past I have given to Wm S. Bailey, editor of the Free South newspaper, letters asking the friends of liberal opinions in the United States and elsewhere to aid him by pecuniary donations. For reasons satisfactory to myself, I feel it my duty to recall all such letters and recommendations. C. M. CLAY.

Striped Bug.—The season is rapidly approaching for the planting of melons, cucumbers and squashes; a word, therefore, on the different remedies used as preventives, cures, etc., of the striped bug may not be uninteresting to some of our readers.

Within the last few years a number of remedies have been published from various sources, such as chip water, wood ashes, soot, scotch snuff, tobacco dried and powdered fine, chamomile flowers, etc. Some of the above remedies do not keep the bugs away during their applications, others but for a short time. The difficulty in the use of the most of them is, their removal from the plants by dews or rains, and therefore to insure success frequent applications are necessary. For a number of years we have used charcoal dust, putting about one quart on the melon or cucumber hills before the plants are up; it has invariably kept the plants from being injured by the insects. Last year we used the Persian Insect Powder on a few hills of cucumbers, and with satisfactory results—by two applications we saved all the vines.

A few weeks since, a gentleman at the Farmers' Club, American Institute, stated that he had kept the bugs from the vines last year by syringing them with a solution of aloes. The formula he gave was—dissolve half an ounce of aloes in a gallon of water, and it will be of sufficient strength. Syringe the vines once or twice during the early stage of their growth. We have not tried this remedy but intend to do so this season.—Cor. Working Farmer.

Sequel to a Tragedy.—Our readers will generally remember the Mercer and Herberton tragedy that occurred in Philadelphia many years since. A man of some wealth and social position named Herberton, had seduced Miss Mercer, a young woman of seventeen, and refused to repair the matter by marriage. A brother took vengeance into his own hands, waylaid the seducer in a ferry boat and shot him dead. For this he was tried for murder and acquitted. Since that period he led a wild career, and finally about two years since, was shot in a restaurant in Philadelphia. The sister was married a few years subsequent to the death of Herberton, lived unhappily with her husband, was divorced, and we find her death recorded in an exchange. The whole family have now passed away.

Most Extraordinary Results

FROM THE USE OF

WINCHESTER'S GENUINE

Hypophosphites

IN THE CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

I need only call the attention of all Consumptive sufferers, whether in advanced or the incipient stage of the disease, to the following extract from a letter addressed to me by a physician of great experience, and extensive practice in Chester Co., Pa. The voluntary evidence of professional men, such as that of Dr. Townsend, ought to convince the most skeptical of the extraordinary efficacy of my preparation of Hypophosphites:

Chatham, Pa., 3d Month. 20th, 1860.

Friend J. Winchester:— * * Thirty-six persons have obtained the medicine from me, twelve of whom have been under my own care. Five of them were, in my opinion, and in the judgment of other physicians, hopeless cases of Phthisis—irritable cough, copious expectorations of a purulent character, night sweats and emaciation. These cases were from one to three years' standing. Auscultation and percussion developed sounds which, taken in connection with other symptoms, gave evidence of a condition from which I have never, in seventeen years' practice, seen a single case recover by any other treatment. * * Under the use of the Hypophosphites, all the bad symptoms ceased; they have gained flesh and strength and health—some of them better than they had enjoyed for seven years previously.

The other cases under my care were in the incipient stage, and in them all symptoms and traces of the disease have disappeared. Of those who were not under my care, I have not heard of a single patient who himself benefitted by the use of the remedy, although in some of them the disease was too far advanced to admit the possibility of recovery.

I presume I am as skeptical in medicines or specifics as most physicians; yet, from the experience I have had in the use of Dr. J. F. Churchill's Remedy for Tuberculosis, I would say to all who have a tendency to that disease—take it, and the sooner the better, before there is any disorganization.

W. W. TOWNSEND, M. D.

The Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda

act with promptness and certainty in every stage of Consumption, and with invariable efficacy in all derangements of the nervous and blood systems, general debility, dyspepsia, asthma, rickets, female complaints, spermatorrhea, in all disorders dependent on imperfect or impaired nutrition, and in all cases of local or constitutional debility. They increase the nervous or vital energy, relieve cough, check night sweats, diminish expectoration, improve the appetite, arrest diarrhœa, produce more refreshing sleep, and create new and healthful blood. A fair trial is a certain cure.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation

of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, is the only reliable form of Dr. Churchill's remedy, and is approved by the medical profession generally. Use no other or any remedy containing iron.

Prices.—In 7 and 16 ounce (pint) bottles, $1 and $2 each.

Half-Fare to Chicago.

Janesville Gazette:—The Chicago & North Western railway will sell tickets to Chicago during the republican convention at half fare commencing May 14th, good on Saturday evening train from Chicago, May 19th. Yours, &c.,

H. E. PATTISON.

Half-Fare Tickets.—We are informed by Mr. Pattison, the agent, that the Chicago and North-Western Railway commenced the sale of half fare tickets to Chicago, to-day, and will continue them through the week. This is a much better arrangement than the one first announced, which was to commence the sale Wednesday morning, as it will enable our citizens to arrive in Chicago before the assembling of the convention.

To Hanover.—Arrangements have been made by which passenger and freight trains on the Mil. & Miss. road connect with the Galena & Chicago road at the Hanover station, leaving Janesville at 11:30 a. m. and 5 p. m. Half-Fare Tickets to Chicago will be sold during the convention, commencing this evening.

Found.—A gold sleeve button has been left at this office for an owner.

Appointed.—We understand that J. M. Hamilton, of this city, has resigned the appointment to take the census of the west assembly district, and that Simon Straus, of the town of Plymouth, has been appointed in his stead.

Runaway Accident.—The Albia (Iowa) Sentinel says it is rumored that McComb, one of the parties charged with the murder of Miss Hungerford, of Rockford, was arrested in Winnebago county, Ill. We doubt the truth of the rumor, as the arrest, if made, would undoubtedly have been first known in this section of country.

Dog vs. Bitches.—Only 49 dogs have been registered and licensed in Beloit. A large number, according to the Courier, of unregistered curs still infest the city.

Liquor.—The common council of Fond du Lac has decided to grant no licenses for the sale of liquor in that city.

Poisoned.—The family of A. F. Cornelius, of Lyons, Iowa, was poisoned recently by the use of pie plant, cooked with rhubarb. Only Mrs. C. is in a dangerous condition. But it should be remembered by all, that the leaf of the pie plant is a very dangerous article of food.

Going to Chicago.—A large number of lawyers and other prominent republicans have arrived in Chicago. The indications are that the attendance will fully equal expectations.

Fire.—An alarm of fire, we understand, was given on Sunday morning, by the burning of the unoccupied church. We also understand that one of the fire young men of the city, employed in the belfry of the church, rang the bell, probably drunk with joy. It would fun to turn out our fire companies at night on a false alarm. If what we hear reported is true, in the absence of proof, Justice Commissioner will have to administer a prescription to him.

Fire in the Wigwam.—It is estimated that 10,000 persons were present at the dedication of the wigwam in Chicago. The speakers promised did not appear, but there was an enthusiastic meeting.

Crop Accounts.—The following paragraph of information of the progress of crops in Illinois, is doubtless well known to many of our readers:

Rev. Mr. Hickey, who made himself somewhat notorious here a short time since by his obscene and insults to ladies, is operating in Galena under a new name. At present he is to be the same individual as before, if we may judge of his advertisement and the description. He came near being escorted out of town one night while here, seated astride of a rail, with a body guard to insure his safe passage.—Rockford Register.

Lucky.—Some scamp figured for a few days in Rockford in writing ladies and abusing editors. The father of one of the little girls on whom he attempted in vain to play his nasty tricks, meeting him at the post office, thrashed him without ceremony and to a good drubbing, which he will not soon forget to remember till the day of his death. He left town very suddenly, with fewer cents than when he came.—Freeport Journal.

A Washington letter-writer indulges in the following pertinent remarks, apropos of the Japanese embassy:

"And, by the way, the question has been raised as to the color of these visitors. Can it be that this administration, which refuses to permit to a black man, will bestow the most flattering attentions upon a set of Asiatics? If so, where is the distinction? Did the Dred Scott decision only disfranchise Africans, or was our glorious constitution made only for white Americans or Anglo Saxons? The Japanese do not belong to the "white race," and democrats everywhere claim that every other race is stamped as inferior by the constitution. Shall we bow down before the "colored" Japanese, and make a great national sensation about them, and then turn round and administer additional insults to the race on account of the same hue?"

Depth of Planting Potatoes.—T. M. Carr, of La Fayette, Ind., relates in the Ohio Farmer, an experiment on this subject. He was stopping with a friend, whom he found planting potatoes, covering lightly, say two or three inches deep, and advised deeper covering. His friend thought not, but allowed him to cover a row his own way. He picked out the largest potatoes, and dropped a row, covering six or eight inches deep. This row did not come up as soon as the rest, but when the plants did come, their superiority was manifested as far as you could see them, and at digging time told the whole story, yielding two or three times as much as any other row.

From one to two thousand acres have been resown to spring wheat in Crawford county, the winter wheat having "gone up."

For the Daily Gazette.

To the Memory of my Dear Friend Susie Cheney.

The fair sweet flowers are springing
From the green turf o'er thy breast;
And the sunshine floods with glory
The place of thy quiet rest;
And I bow before thy grave, love,
And sprinkle the flowers with tears,
And recall the beautiful memories
That have marked the happy years
In which we have walked together,
Sharing each joy and grief.
Alas! that the bond is broken
So beautiful, and so brief.

In the calm, sweet twilight hour,
When the night comes down to meet
The beautiful day that is passing
Away with its flying feet,
And the star you called your own, love,
Looks down and smiles on me,
As it used to beam on you, love,—
Then my heart goes out to thee;
And I fancy you are near me,
And I almost see the gleam
Of soul-lit eyes, and the waving
Of white hands in my dream.

Oh! we miss thee sadly, darling,
Yet we know that God in love,
Hath taken thee from the sorrows
Of life, to himself above;
And we will follow closely,
The path thy footsteps trod,
Till it leads to the shining portals
Of heaven, to thee, and God.
Then we'll join the swelling anthem
With which high heaven rings,
"All honor, power and glory,
And praise to the King of Kings."

Emerald Grove, May 9th, 1860. CORA MAY.

Isn't it rather an odd fact in natural history that the softest water is caught when it rains the hardest.

Life Insurance.

Those desiring this safest and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

While duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, southwest corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. S. DAGGETT, President.

A. W. KELLOGG, Secretary.

☞ Messrs. Pixley & Barlow, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in this home company, and will also be happy to give information as to the condition thereof, to any one desirous of being informed, in Janesville.

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, BY

BUMP & GRAY,

GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, MAY 14, 1860.

The wheat market opened quite firm this morning at Saturday's closing figures, and the demand continued good until despatches were received from the lakeshore, showing a dull market there, when buyers lowered their views fully 2c per bushel, closing at 1,02@1,05 for milling spring, and 1,00@1,02 for shipping. About 1500 bushels changed hands at the above figures. Receipts of coarse grains were light and prices unchanged.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—white winter 1,05a1,12½; good to choice milling spring at 1,03a1,05; common to fair shipping, 1,00a1,02.

BARLEY—in good request at 45a56c per 60 lbs., fair to choice.

CORN—shelled, per 60 lbs., 42a44c; ear per 70 lbs. 33a35c.

OATS—in good request at 28a30 per bushel.

RYE—quotable at 60a65 per 56 lbs. None coming forward.

POTATOES—plenty at 30a40 per bushel for good to choice ones.

Non-Explosive Burning Fluid

USED WITH SAFETY & ECONOMY.

The Best in the Market.

Palmer's Drug and Tea Store.

WE have, for several years past dealt largely in BURNING FLUID, and have always, thus far, kept fully up to the times, in any improvements made in its manufacture. Nearly a year ago, in an appeal in favor of its more general use, based upon the fact that the raw material from which it is made, is mainly the product of our own farms, we publicly announced that there was, at the temperature at which it is generally used, "no explosive power whatever in Burning Fluid, as now made by those who understand the business in which they are engaged. That injury from its use was either the result of gross carelessness, or of undue alarm caused by a belief in its explosive power," &c. Since then we have manufactured and sold thousand of gallons to consumers in this city and vicinity, and if our assumption was an erroneous one, it would undoubtedly have been discovered ere this.

We are prepared to submit our Fluid to any test the public may call for, satisfied that, with ordinary care, no safer, better or more agreeable light can be produced. As we are indebted to no traveling "Prof. Gaies—O" for the high state of perfection attained by us in its manufacture, we are, as usual, prepared to offer our Fluid at the LOWEST MARKET FIGURES, and to guarantee entire satisfaction in its use, or the money refunded. Half-Fare to Chicago.

Editors Gazette:—The Chicago & North Western railway will sell tickets to Chicago during the republican convention at half-fare—commencing May 11th, good until Saturday evening train from Chicago, May 19th. Yours, &c.,

H. E. PATTISON.

Half-Fare Tickets.—We are informed by Mr. Pattison, the agent, that the Chicago and North-Western Railway commenced the sale of half-fare tickets to Chicago, to-day, and will continue them through the week. This is a much better arrangement than the one first announced, which was to commence the sale Wednesday morning, as it will enable our citizens to arrive in Chicago before the assembling of the convention.

To Hanover.—Arrangements have been made by which passenger and freight trains on the Mil. & Miss. road connect with the Galena & Chicago road at the Hanover station, leaving Janesville at 11.30 a. m. and 8.00 p.m. ☞ Half-Fare Tickets to Chicago will be sold during the convention, commencing this evening.

Found.—A gold sleeve button has been left at this office for an owner.

Resigned.—We understand that J. M. Haselton, of this city, has resigned the appointment to take the census of the western assembly district, and that Simon Straus, of the town of Plymouth, has been appointed in his stead.

Rumored Arrest.—The Alba (Iowa) Sentinel has a rumor that McComb, one of the persons charged with the murder of Miss Harvey, of Rockford, was arrested in Winnebago county, Ill. We doubt the truth of the rumor, as the arrest, if made, would probably have been first known in this section of country.

Dogs in Beloit.—Only 49 dogs have been registered and licensed in Beloit. A countless number, (according to the Courier,) of unregistered curs still infest the city.

No License.—The common council of Beloit have decided to grant no licenses for the sale of liquors in that city.

Caution.—The family of A. F. Cornwall, of Tipton, Iowa, was poisoned recently by eating the leaves of pie plant, cooked for greens. Only Mrs. C. is in a dangerous condition. Let it be remembered by all, that the leaf of the pie-plant is a very dangerous food.

Delegates to Chicago.—A large number of delegates and other prominent republicans have arrived in Chicago. The prospect is that the attendance will fully equal expectations.

Alarm of Fire.—An alarm of fire, we hear, was given on Sunday morning, by the bell in the episcopal church. We also learn that one of the fast young men of the city was discovered in the belfry of the church striking the bell, probably drunk and thinking it good fun to turn out our citizens and fire companies at night on a false alarm. If what we hear reported is true and susceptible of proof, Justice Comstock ought to administer a prescription to him.

Dedication of the Wigwam.—It is estimated that 10,000 persons were present at the dedication of the wigwam in Chicago. Several of the speakers promised did not attend, but there was an enthusiastic meeting.

Heard from Again.—The following paragraphs give information of the progress of an individual tolerably well known in this city:

Dr. Rosenberg, who made himself somewhat notorious here a short time since by his impudence and insults to ladies, is operating at Galena under a new name. At least we judge it to be the same individual by the style of his advertisement and the cuts used in it. He came near being escorted to the cars one night while here, seated on the soft side of a rail, with a body guard to ensure his safe passage.—Rockford Register.

The same scamp figured for a few days in this city, insulting ladies and abusing little girls. The father of one of the little girls on whom he attempted in vain to play his rascally tricks, meeting him at the post office, attacked him without ceremony and gave him a sound drubbing, which he will be apt to remember till the day of his death. He left town very suddenly, with darker eyes than when he came.—Freeport Journal.

A Washington letter-writer indulges in the following pertinent remarks, apropos of the Japanese embassy:

"And, by the way, the question has been raised as to the color of these visitors. Can it be that this administration, which refuses a passport to a black man, will bestow the most flattering attentions upon a set of colored men? If so, where is the distinction? Did the Dred Scott decision only disfranchise Africans, or was our glorious constitution made only for white Americans or Anglo-Saxons? The Japanese do not belong to the "white race," and democrats everywhere claim that every other race is stamped as inferior by the constitution. Shall we bow down before the "colored" Japanese, and make a great national sensation about them, and then turn round and administer additional insults to the race on our soil of the same hue?"

Depth of Planting Potatoes.—T. M. Carr, of La Fayette, Ind., relates in the Ohio Farmer, an experiment on this subject. He was stopping with a friend, whom he found planting potatoes, covering lightly, say two or three inches deep, and advised deeper covering. His friend thought not, but allowed him to cover a row his own way. He picked out the largest potatoes, and dropped a row, covering six or eight inches deep. This row did not come up as soon as the rest, but when the plants did come, their superiority was manifested as far as you could see them, and they kept ahead through the season, and at digging time told the whole story, yielding two or three times as much as any other row.

From one to two thousand acres have been re-sown to spring wheat in Crawford county, the winter wheat having "gone up."

For the Daily Gazette.

To the Memory of my Dear Friend Susie Cheney.

The fair sweet flowers are springing
From the green turf o'er thy breast,
And the sunshine floods with glory
The place of thy quiet rest;
And I bow before thy grave, love,
And sprinkle the flowers with tears,
And recall the beautiful memories
That have marked the happy years
In which we have walked together,
Sharing each joy and grief.
Alas! that the bond is broken
So beautiful, and so brief.

In the calm, sweet twilight hour,
When the night comes down to meet
The beautiful day that is passing
Away with its flying feet,
And the star you called your own, love,
Looks down and smiles on me,
As it used to beam on you, love,—
Then my heart goes out to thee;
And I fancy you are near me,
And I almost see the gleam
Of soul-lit eyes, and the waving
Of white hands in my dream.

Oh! we miss thee sadly, darling,
Yet we know that God in love,
Hath taken thee from the sorrows
Of life, to himself above;
And we will follow closely,
The path thy footsteps trod,
Till it leads to the shining portals
Of heaven, to thee, and God.
Then we'll join the swelling anthem
With which high heaven rings,
"All honor, power and glory,
And praise to the King of Kings."

Emerald Grove, May 9th, 1860. Cora May.

Isn't it rather an odd fact in natural history that the softest water is caught when it rains the hardest.

Life Insurance.

Those desiring this safest and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

While duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, southwest corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. S. DAGGETT, President.

A. W. Kellogg, Secretary.

☞ Messrs. Pixley & Harlow, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in this home company, and will also be happy to give information as to the condition thereof, to any one desirous of being informed, in Janesville.

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, by

BUMP & GRAY,

GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, May 14, 1860.

The wheat market opened quite firm this morning at Saturday's closing figures, and the demand continued good until despatches were received from the lakeshore, showing a dull market there, when buyers lowered their views fully 3c per bushel, closing at 1.02@1.05 for milling spring, and 1,00@1,02 for shipping. About 1500 bushels changed hands at the above figures. Receipts of coarse grains were light and prices unchanged.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—white winter 1.05a1.12½; good to choice milling spring at 1,03a1,05; common to fair shipping, 1.00a1.02.

BARLEY—in good request at 45a58c per 50 lbs., fair to choice.

CORN—shelled, per 60 lbs., 42a44c; ear per 70 lbs. 30a35c.

OATS—in good request at 28a30 per bushel.

RYE—quotable at 60a65 per 60 lbs. None coming forward.

POTATOES—plenty at 30a40 per bushel for good to choice ones.

TIMOTHY SEED—scarce and in demand at 2.25a2.60 per 46 lbs.

BUTTER—plenty at 11a13.

EGGS—in fair demand at 7a8 per dozen.

HIDES—green, 6a6½; dry flint, 12a14.

FLOUR—spring at retail, 2.00, winter, 3.50.

POULTRY—chickens, 6a7; turkeys, 7a8.

Chicago Market.

Monday Evening, May 12.

Flour, 100 bbls. Beloit extra, 4,50 on track. No. 1 spring wheat 1.11½; No. 2 1.10; club 1,15. Corn, 51¼ a54. Oats, 32a34. Rye, 85a86. Barley, 70a71.

Non-Explosive Burning Fluid

USED WITH SAFETY & ECONOMY.

The Best in the Market.

Palmer's Drug and Tea Store.

WE have, for several years past dealt largely in BURNING FLUID, and have always, thus far, kept fully up to the times, in any improvements made in its manufacture. Nearly a year ago, in an appeal in favor of its more general use, based upon the fact that the raw material from which it is made, is mainly the product of our own farms, we publicly announced that there was, at the temperature at which it is generally used, "no explosive power whatever in Burning Fluid, as now made by those who understand the business in which they are engaged. That injury from its use was either the result of gross carelessness, or of undue alarm caused by a belief in its explosive power," &c. Since then we have manufactured and sold thousand of gallons to consumers in this city and vicinity, and if our assumption was an erroneous one, it would undoubtedly have been discovered ere this.

We are prepared to submit our Fluid to any test the public may call for, satisfied that, with ordinary care, no safer, better or more agreeable light can be produced. As we are indebted to no traveling "Prof. Green—O!" for the high state of perfection attained by us in its manufacture, we are, as usual, prepared to offer our Fluid at the LOWEST MARKET FIGURES, and to guarantee entire satisfaction in its use, or the money refunded. SPECIAL FREIGHT NOTICE!

THIS company having lately made more full and perfect arrangements than heretofore had, beg to call attention to their facilities for the

of all classes of merchandise, between the eastern cities and manufacturing towns, and places west, north-west and south-west. We offer the following advantages:—From and after this date our fast Express Train will be run from Jersey City every day (Sundays excepted) direct for Dunkirk, making close connection with our trains on Lake Shore Railroad for all places westward.

Full and complete arrangements have been perfected by which can be made than has heretofore been made or attempted by any freight line. Our business is under the control and management of experienced transportation men. We have capable and responsible agents at all principal points of transfer and delivery, and our freight is carried in cars under our own control—all of which ensure safety and despatch; added to which

Our Rates will at all Times be as Low as by the Regular Railroad Lines.

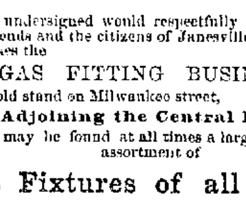

Great care will be taken to guard against over charges, losses or damages, but should any occur, claim therefor will be promptly examined into and adjusted.

SHIPPING DIRECTIONS.—Mark packages "Valentine Express." Procure Bills of Lading on the day of Shipment. For rates of freight, contracts, bills of lading and directions, apply to IRA JUSTIN, JR., Agent,

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS, - - $450,000

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

The solid service long and successfully tried, and the many advantages the Ætna Insurance Company possess in its line, should not be overlooked by those ready to insure and understanding their bests interests.

During "stringent times" the necessity for reliable Insurance becomes an imperative duty—the ability of property holders to sustain loss being then much lessened.

Agencies in all the principal cities and towns throughout the state. Policies issued without delay, by any of the duly authorised agents of the company.

Republican National Convention.

As the day approaches for the assembling of the convention, the interest in its result increases, and the efforts of the friends of the various candidates for a nomination are stimulated to greater activity. The contest for the nomination is likely to be spirited, but we do not anticipate anything else than a cheerful acquiescence by all after the selection has been made. Beyond all question, the first choice of this state is Wm. H. Seward. This choice has been manifested by unquestioned exhibitions of public sentiment, and by a resolution of the state convention which appointed the delegates. If a majority of the convention about to assemble shall indicate a preference for some other candidate, we do not look for a factious and useless adherence of the Wisconsin delegates to the man of their choice; their votes ought to be wisely directed to some other known and tried exponent of the principles of the republican party; but until the nomination of the distinguished New York senator is shown to be impossible, or injudicious, in view of the public feeling in other republican localities, the republicans of Wisconsin will expect all their delegates to give a faithful and true expression to their own feelings and preference. Nothing short or less than this will satisfy them, or discharge with fidelity the trust committed to the delegates.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.—The Madison Journal has a suggestion in relation to the census of this state that seems to us timely and proper. In the list of questions necessary to be answered by the head of each family is one of this character:—"In the first place, it is necessary to write down the name of every person whose usual place of abode, on the first day of June, 1860, was in the family."

The Journal suggests that it is proper, as well as important, to include all bona fide members of the family, though they may be temporarily absent from the state. Our state ought not to loose from the aggregate of her population, and suffer thereby for ten years to come in the representation in congress and in her electoral vote, those who have rushed for Pike's Peak this spring, with no intention to make that country a permanent abode; who do not propose to forfeit residence or the right of voting in Wisconsin.

If this rule is adopted, and we cannot see why it should not be, a little care on the part of the deputy marshals, and forethought by those giving in the names of their respective households, may secure the enumeration of large numbers of our population otherwise liable to be omitted.

GERMAN REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION.—A national convention of German republicans, consisting of three delegates from each state, will meet in Chicago today. Most of the northern and some of the southern states will be represented.—The object of this convention is not to nominate a candidate for the Presidency, but to compare views, and agree upon a basis of principles which will guide them in extending their support to the nominee who may be placed before the country.

INDIGNANT.—The Milwaukee News is highly indignant about the presecution of Marshal Lewis for illegal voting. It gives free vent to its feelings by declaring that it "had its origin in the worst passions of low and degenerate hearts, who resorted to this method to punish the United States Marshal for not appointing the 1001 applicants to take the census, among whom were some who had the smell of the penitentiary upon them yet. It was amusing to see the sore heads hang around the court room anxious to witness a conviction; we counted six of these worthies in the criminal box at one time, and the expression of their countenances was not unbecoming the seat they occupied."

As the News is a voluntary witness, we are not disposed to disbelieve this testimony of friends it ought, and, probably, does, know thoroughly.

CONGRESSIONAL PRINTING—Mr. Wendell, the congressional printer, in his testimony before the Covode committee, gave the following statement of the total cost of the printing and binding for congress and the executive departments for the past six years:

Description of work.	Cost.	Average profit, 50 per cent.
Thirty-third Congress,.........	$1,033,360 76	511,680 38
Thirty-fourth Congress.........	915,167 42	453,583 71
Thirty-fifth Congress,.........	628,851 23	314,425 61
Total,.....................	$2,797,499 41	$1,283,689 61
Executive binding (est'd)	230,120 00	116,060 00
Total,.....................	$3,027,619 41	$1,387,749 70

LARGE TRAINS.—The evening trains to-night over the Michigan Central and the Michigan Southern roads will be very large ones. The Chicago Tribune of Saturday morning says that a gentleman who arrived there Friday was informed by one of the officers of the Great Western Railway, at Hamilton, that fifteen hundred tickets had already been sold for the train through, to arrive in Chicago to-night on the Michigan Central Railroad at 10 P. M.,—sixteen hours from Suspension Bridge.

It is expected that Michigan avenue will be illuminated to greet the arrival of these delegates.

DROUGHT IN NEW ENGLAND.—An extensive drought is prevailing throughout New England. In New Hampshire, cattle are driven miles for water. Fires in the woods are also doing much damage.

The Troubles of the Douglas Politicians.

The "irrepressible conflict" which appeared at Charleston was nothing in comparison to what will occur at Baltimore on the 18th of June. There will be a new set of delegates elected in the place of the seceders, while the seceders themselves give out that they intend to "come back" and claim their places. Here is a chance for a row. If they do, it is not at all impossible that they will be admitted, for the New York delegation appear to be able to decide the question, as they did the continuance of the two-thirds rule, after the seceders left. The Albany Atlas gives out that "men are of little consequence," and that they must nominate a man most likely to win popular favor. The New Yorkers are after the spoils, and will be perfectly willing to drop Douglas, if necessary to accomplish that object. Our north-western democrats have risked all the chances on Douglas—if he goes under, they sink with him. This kind of fidelity may be very admirable as a sentiment, but New York politicians do not believe in it, nor do they practice it. The Atlas enforces this idea, and it will be interesting for the Wisconsin democrats to read what it says. It remarks that "no pride of opinion or mere self-will in the matter of selecting a standard-bearer in this important presidential campaign should defeat all candidates and prevent any nomination." This means, that when the time comes, the New Yorkers are determined "to go in on the winning side."

While the New Yorkers, who hold the fate of Douglas in their hands, talk in this way, the Washington Star, another democratic organ, compares Douglas to Aaron Burr, and fancies that it finds a striking affinity in the character of the two men, as well as a strong resemblance in the circumstances in which they are placed. Burr, it says, was surrounded and abetted by the most unscrupulous band of disappointed office seekers, disbanded military men and would-be-plunder-mongers that the country contained, and he sought to defeat the evident will of the democratic majority, who sustained Jefferson, and through the assistance of such allies to seize upon the presidency by a coup de main. "There was then as little pretence that he was the choice of the democracy for the presidency, though sustained by them for the vice-presidency, as at this time there is a substantial reason to believe that Douglas is the presidential choice of the constituents of the effective portion of the late Charleston convention—quite as little. Yet he, Burr, by dint of such assurance, recklessness and cunning, on the part of all the discontented and unprincipled elements engaged in politics, nominally on the democratic side, then banded together, came quite as near cheating the democracy out of the presidency as Douglas came, a day or two since, to cheating them out of the nomination."

With a democratic newspaper talking in this way, it is apparent that the war of Charleston will be transferred to Baltimore with re-doubled fury. We think that Forney clearly foreshadows what is to take place. He says: "There is to be no quarter shown him, [Douglas] or any of his friends. He is to be offered up as a sacrifice, and they are to be hunted out of public life. The fact is, no northern man who dares to differ from the pro slavery leaders can ever hope to regain their confidence. He is foredoomed, and this forever."

HOUSTON FOR PRESIDENT.—A large meeting of the friends of Gen. Houston from all parts of the Union was held at the Metropolitan Hotel, last week, after the nomination of Mr. Bell, and the Baltimore, Charleston and all other conventions were repudiated, and a determination expressed that the people will make their own choice for president.

THE SECESSION LEADER.—Yancy, the leader of the secessionists, is a native of Troy, N. Y. His mother subsequently married Rev. Dr. Beman of Troy, and the queer freaks as told of that lady would fill a volume. Yancy was sent to Williams College, but no college could hold him, and the faculty were glad to get rid of him. Yancy, in South Carolina, shot his uncle dead, and was imprisoned for the act fifteen months, and then was sent to congress, where he fought a bloodless duel with Mr. Clingman.—Madison Argus.

A former resident of Troy, who is thoroughly familiar with the personal history of its prominent citizens, tells us that Mr. Yancy is a native of Georgia. His mother, it is true, was the wife of Dr. Beman, but she was a native of Virginia, and was married in Georgia while the Doctor was a teacher in that state. Mrs. Beman, at the time of her marriage in Georgia, was a widow, and Mr. Yancy was a child by her first husband.

DOUGLAS PAINTED BY A DEMOCRATIC FRIEND.—The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Tribune says:

"The discussion in the senate to-day, between Messrs. Clingman and Benjamin, was exceedingly rich. Clingman, who represents Douglas, said he would endorse any of the platforms presented at Charleston, but he did not think the majority platform a politic one. Benjamin scored him roundly for his willinguess to throw aside principle in this contest, and went on to expose the duplicity of the Douglasites at Charleston, who, he said, while privately giving assurances to the southern men that they considered them right in theory, tried to get the convention to adopt a platform which could be construed one way in the north, and another way in the south. He gave it as his opinion that before any of them were six weeks older they would find that the democratic party would be re-united upon a platform satisfactory to the south. If it was not, he said he would join "any third party who would guarantee the rights of the south." His speech was one of the most powerful efforts I have ever heard in the senate. He roasted and basted Clingman terribly. Poor Clingman has a hard time of it. He is the only senator from the south who stands up for Douglas, and he gets awfully abused for it."

RAILROADS IN CONNECTICUT.—The whole length of railroads built within the state is 902 miles, constructed at a cost of $19,831,532 04, of which $18,727,717 31 has been paid in. The gross income has been $3,527,903 79, which is an increase of $409,921 64. The net income has been $1,251,797 51, or four per cent. on the cost, showing an increase of $176,392 69.

For the Daily Gazette.

TRULY THEY WERE GREAT MEN.—A Mohammed, who founded a religion which overshadows nearly two-thirds of the entire population of the world up to the present time. An Alexander, who conquered the world by his mighty armies. A Bonaparte, who so far dethroned the ecclesiastical power of the world as to cause the pope to bow to his command. A George Washington, who laid the foundation of the great American republic, and led her armies on to a successful and glorious victory. But a greater benefactor of mankind than either of these will be the man who shall teach how two kernels of wheat may be grown on the same amount of land, and with no great amount of manual labor than it now requires to raise one. J. B. PEMBER.

With this as a motto, I will now proceed to give to the Gazette and Free Press my experience, founded on actual experiments, on the nature and peculiar character of wheat. Wheat has been, is now, and will continue to be the great staple product of our country for commercial wealth; it is the main and leading crop for home consumption: it is the greatest component factor of bread—the real staple of life not only to this, but to foreign nations. Hence arises the great necessity of its cultivation. Where ought it to be grown? On such portions of the earth's surface as possess natural elements for its growth and maturity; and by whom? those who love to gain their bread by the sweat of their brow, with a cheerful heart and smiling countenance, having large heads, well developed brain, a natural love to experiment, and then to profit by, and at the same time to divide the practical knowledge they have thus gained, with others, for the common benefit of all who desire to learn: for, if we would be great, we must be learned, not only theoretically, but practically,—not only that which reads well on paper in the parlor, but that which works well on the land, both in the sunshine and in the shade.

First, almost every kernel of wheat that is properly matured will vegetate even under very unfavorable weather, if covered in the ground at a sufficient depth to retain moisture enough to swell the kernel, which requires but little. Whether sown in the cold of winter, the moderation of spring, the extreme heat of summer, or the maturing season of fall, very few kernels fail to have and to retain their germinating powers until the weather admits of a growth.—Now for the proof: When but a boy, I went to labor for a man of threescore years, who, by the by, was one of the most successful practical wheat-growers I ever knew, living in the western portion of the state of New York. His age had given him chances for information superior to those of most men, and his natural and cultivated turn of mind had, not unworthily, placed him in the front rank of practical and profitable experimental men of any age. His land for spring wheat was fitted already for the seed in the fall; he then sought to take advantage of the January and February thaw to sow his wheat, as it would then come in contact with the ground at once, which he thought was best, as it was not as likely to be picked up by birds, or blown away with the snow. Then, as soon as the frost was gone from the surface so that he could, he would take his team and a heavy brush and go over the ground thoroughly, and that finished the seeding. The freezing and thawing which followed would leave the land light and lively, even though wet when brushed. If he failed from any cause to sow his seed during the thaw, he would seek a light snow in the latter part of winter, as it was more convenient to see where it was sown. His wheat was sure to grow, not having failed for many years. It was earlier, plumper, lighter in color, and heavier than that of his neighbors', sown in the usual way, and on the same soil. Another proof is this: Where threshing is done in the winter, there will be sure to come up a thick mat of wheat, though no pains are taken to cover it up; or, perhaps, it is on sward land,—at all events, on land unplowed and untirely unfitted for the seed. Another proof is, that upon actual experiment, made by myself last spring, of twenty-nine kernels, every one grew. Another of the present spring: I commenced sowing wheat the eighth day of March; the ninth it froze, and continued so until the fourteenth, when I commenced to sow again. It continued to freeze every night to the depth of from two to four inches,—only one night to the depth of four inches,—and did not get clear of frost through the day, when I would sow in the afternoon. I soon found my wheat was beginning to sprout. I continued to sow, and to examine my wheat each day, and, notwithstanding the freezing, it grew from one-eighth to one-fourth of an inch every twenty-four hours; and in the many hundreds of kernels I have taken up and examined, not one was found to fail that was covered one half-inch with dirt. After my first wheat had been sown five weeks, I took from the ground twenty-four kernels which had never been covered with dirt—exposed to the wet and dry, the heat and cold, continually for the whole time, with no appearance of sprouting, but apparently bleached and dead. I planted them in about one and a half inches of dirt, and in a few days every one of them commenced to sprout; soon the spire was seen above the ground, and they have continued to grow finely. I likewise sought ten that had sprouted, and afterwards, on account of cold, drouth and insufficient earth, dwindled and dried up entirely. I planted them the same as the others; eight out of the ten sprouted again and came up, and are doing well. With these and many other proofs on this point, I have become satisfied that there need be no fear for the growing of wheat that has not been badly injured by heat and moisture, if properly sown and covered with earth, even at unusual seasons of the year. I will now leave this part of the question for the present, as I may have recourse to it at some later time.

Next I will take up the peculiar characteristics and manner of the vegetation of wheat. The first perceivable change is the softening of the main body of the kernel by moisture gathered from the earth. The next is the starting of the main tap root, which proceeds from the end of the kernel, and at the center of the chit. This is soon followed by two more, one on each side of the main root; these usually grow from one to two inches in length before the spire or stock blade is seen to start, which starts directly opposite the first roots of the kernel, is large and healthy, and if the influences of moisture, nutrition and heat are favorable, the number of roots will increase to five or seven—rarely if ever numbering more. Their length and growth is materially governed by the depth of tillage, of which I shall have occasion to speak hereafter. I have seen them ten inches long, with almost numberless fibers of different lengths—on deep tillage—when the spire was not more than three inches long; while earlier sown and larger spires—on shallow tillage—had more than five inches of length. The latter had decided advantages of weather and fertility of soil. I have talked with some very good farmers, who think these roots would run to the length of two feet, and they give me very good reasons for believing thus. I find a variety of opinions on the subject; but one thing is certain, I find less difference of opinion among men who have carefully examined and made thorough experimental tests. On the contrary, I find but very little disagreement between those who have founded their faith on realities. The greatest discord always appears to be between the ignorant and the learned, the careless, unobserving and close practical observer, whose judgment is founded on reason and the great law of government, as found to exist in Nature and Nature's God.

In my next I shall speak of the true depth to cover the seed, and the formation of the main spire and its numerous adjuncts. In the intermediate time I would ask that the curious, the inquisitive, or the skeptic to go to his field and examine as far as he can, and see if what I have already said is not true, for I would not ask to arraign my cause before a more safe, powerful, or even fearful tribunal than that of public opinion in this enlightened age and community in which we live.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

It is said that the Quakers are gradually disappearing from England. Two hundred years ago their proportion in Great Britain was about one in every one hundred and thirty inhabitants. At present they do not count one in a thousand.

At the municipal election in Philadelphia on Tuesday, over 71,000 votes were polled, of which the democratic candidate for city comptroller had 35,720, and the peoples' candidate 35,713, a majority for the former of only 7 votes.

The Messrs. Gates & Co., of Chicago, have already sold $8,000 worth of their stampers and crushers for the Pike's Peak gold mines, and their orders for machinery of that kind reached $10,000 on Saturday last.

The young ladies of Hopedale, Ill., met to trim a church for some festival occasion, and two men named Findley and McDowell, getting into a fight relative to an alleged insult toward one of the ladies, McDowell drew a knife and killed Findley on the spot.

During the year ending June 30th, 1859, Wisconsin paid postage to the amount of $180,238.

On the first of May, Col. Balcom, of Stiles, laid on the Oconto Pioneer's table, a cucumber measuring thirteen inches in length and five inches in circumference, which he raised in his garden.

Philadelphia citizens lose over one million dollars by the recent decision of the U. S. supreme court, of the celebrated Santillan land case, in which the San Francisco Land Co. claimed a large tract of land adjoining San Francisco. The shares of the company have sold as high as $5,000, their par value being $300, and a great many being held in Philadelphia. The court decided against the company.

Compliments carried to an extravagant extent become offences. There is a material difference between prettily asking for a lock of hair, and taking the whole scalp.

It may be fairly contended that inveterate laziness is the most effective labor-saving machine ever invented.

A BOOK EVERY MAN SHOULD HAVE.—There is no doubt that an almost endless amount of litigation and large expense could be saved to the community, were such ready, explicit and reliable means of information as the "LEGAL GUIDE" and "Business Man's Assistant," placed in the hands of every person, male and female, who have anything to do with business matters, on whatever scale. The farmer or the merchant, the professional man, the woman left to her own resources and her own support, may literally have their own lawyer always by them in one of these admirable little compilations, containing state laws, the most approved legal and business forms, and a complete glossary of legal terms.

The work has just been published in law style of binding by Messrs. J. A. Colby & Co., No. 118 Randolph street, Chicago, and is destined to receive the wide adoption its merits deserve. Every one should have it, and the public in purchasing of the publishers will enjoy the widely celebrated advantage of that house. We advise our readers to send to send to Mr. Colby for the Legal Guide, price $1.00, 21 cents in addition, if sent by mail, to pay postage, or send for a descriptive catalogue which is mailed free upon application.—Chicago Press and Tribune.

TIME TO PLANT.—Some twenty years since, I thought it desirable to finish planting before the 20th of May. Not so now. Were I obliged to fix some one day when my field planting should be done, it would not be before the 20th, as in most instances the ground is not sufficiently warm till after that time.

The old Indian rule on Cape Cod was, to plant corn when the oak trees got into the grey. That rule I hold to be safe, and as sure as any, as it indicates the forwardness of the season.

What took place at our last meeting warns me that I shall be on the unpopular side by saying that where clay, rather than sand, predominates, in quite one half of our seasons, it is quite as well, and in many instances much better, to plant corn later rather than before the middle of May. I am sure that very many of the grevious complaints we hear uttered about seed corn rotting in the ground, would be unknown if the planting was not done before the ground was in a proper condition to receive the seed. It is an idle dogma to tell me I cannot grow dent corn of the very first quality, if it is not planted before the 20th of May. Why, sir, I know that I have planted yellow dent corn after the 20th of May, and got twice the quantity, and a far better quality, than did several of my neighbors who planted theirs before the 15th.

Tribune's Washington Correspondence, 13th.—It is now ascertained that Mr. Walker, correspondent of the New York Express here, received $2,500 of the money appropriated by Mr. Wendell to carry the English bill through the house. He will be examined to-morrow forenoon or next day.

Attorney General Black has notified Mr. Covode's committee that he desires to be present at the next examination of Mr. Schbatel. A lively time may be expected.

Robt. J. Walker has now obtained all his papers relating to Kansas, and is prepared to close his testimony before the Covode committee. Among them is said to be the original of his inaugural address, with interliving made by the President's own hand in regard to submitting the constitution to the people.

The southern address, urging the seceding delegates to return, was written by Mr. Toombs, and characterized by his strong will throughout. Modifications were suggested but nane were adopted, for if it had not been signed us prepared, Mr. Toombs would doubtless have issued it on his own responsibility.

AUGUSTA, GA., May 13.

At a democratic meeting at Atlanta on Saturday, the postmaster defended the Charleston secessionists, and denounced Douglas as a traitor to the democracy and the south. B. C. Yancey made a lengthy and similar speech. The national Baltimore democracy was defended by Col. Gaskill. The meeting adjourned for one week.

DON'T LIKE HIM.—The Waukesha County Democrat takes the defeat of Douglas at Charleston in a very submissive spirit. It says:

"The utter impolicy of pressing the name of Douglas is now apparent to the most superficial politician. The idea of rewarding a man for ruining you, would be considered ridiculous as a business proposition. How very absurd, then, the project of the northwest's being a unit in favor of giving the presidential nomination to a man whose measuses and policy have changed six of the strongest democratic states in the Union, to six more reliable black republican states than New England herself can boast? * * * We utter what we feel when we assert, in our judgement there could not fall upon the country a more dire calamity than the nomination and election of Mr. Douglas."

In another view of the case, the Democrat is equally resigned. Speaking of the Kansas-Nebraska bill, it remarks:

"Mr. Douglas betrayed the north in his measure, the covert the design of which was to have Kansas admitted as a slave state into the Union. This fatal measure revolutionized the democratic party in the north west where it had its strongest lodgment.—To obtain a re election to the United States senate from Illinois, Mr. Douglas shrunk from carrying out the logical conclusions of the policy he inaugurated,—viz.: in the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton constitution,—and thus betrayed his pledges to the south. The south has had sufficient self-respect and dignity to resent and punish the treachery, and in doing so she has incidentally rendered great service to the Union and the cause of sound public morals. It affords us pleasure to accord her the praises which are her due. May the sordid and truckling politicians of the northwest and of the Union, profit by the lesson."

STRIPED BUG.—The season is rapidly approaching for the planting of melons, cucumbers and squashes; a word, therefore, on the different remedies used as preventives, cures, etc., of the striped bug may not be uninteresting to some of our readers.

Within the last few years a number of remedies have been published from various sources, such as chip water, wood ashes, soot, scotch snuff, tobacco dried and powdered fine, chamomile flowers, etc. Some of the above remedies do not keep the bugs away during their applications, others but for a short time. The difficulty in the use of the most of them is, their removal from the plants by dews or rains, and therefore to insure success frequent applications are necessary. For a number of years we have used charcoal dust, putting about one quart on the melon or cucumber hills before the plants are up; it has invariably kept the plants from being injured by the insects. Last year we used the Persian Insect Powder on a few hills of cucumbers, and with satisfactory results—by two applications we saved all the vines.

A few weeks since, a gentlemen at the Farmers' Club, American Institute, stated that he had kept the bugs from the vines last year by syringing them with a solution of aloes. The formula he gave was—dissolve half an ounce of aloes in a gallon of water, and it will be of sufficient strength. Syringe the vines once or twice during the early stage of their growth. We have not tried this remedy but intend to do so this season.—Cor. Working Farmer.

SEQUEL TO A TRAGEDY.—Our readers will generally remember the Mercer and Herberton tragedy that occurred in Philadelphia many years since. A man of some wealth and social position named Herberton, had seduced Miss Mercer, a young woman of seventeen, and refused to repair the matter by marriage. A brother took vengeance into his own hands, waylaid the seducer in a ferry boat and shot him dead. For this he was tried for murder and acquitted. Since that period he led a wild career, and finally about two years since, was shot in a restaurant in Philadelphia. The sister was married a few years subsequent to the death of Herberton, lived unhappily with her husband, was divorced, and we find her death recorded in an exchange. The whole family have now passed away.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.
Grand Display of French Millinery, &c.
MISS SHEEHAN & CO.,

WOULD respectfully announce to the ladies of Janesville and vicinity that she will open, for inspection, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May the 17th, 18th and 19th, 1860, a choice and select assortment of MILLINERY GOODS, &C.

The stock embraces everything that is new, novel and fashionable in the market, such as as Ribbons, Ruches, French and American Flowers in every color, style and price, Ladies Dress Caps, in endless variety. Misses' Bonnets, Flats and Riding Hats, all prices, in fact every article which constitutes a First Class Millinery Establishment may be found here, all of which I will sell at very low prices, being enabled to do so from the fact that I buy my goods for cash from the best houses, both in New York and Chicago.

Miss Sheehan & Co. feel confident, from the long experience in the business in all its various branches which we have had, together with every facility for buying, that she cannot fail to suit the most fastidious, both in style, durability, elegance and cheapness.

Ladies in want of a fashionable Bonnet will find it to their interest to give us a call before buying elsewhere.
Respectfully submitted,
MISS SHEEHAN & CO.
Janesville, May 8th, 1860.

N. B.—Old bonnets cleaned, bleached, pressed and made to look as good as new on short notice.

Dresses cut and made to order, one door north McKey & Bro.'s, up stairs. may9dawtf

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Dentistry.

M. B. Johnson still continues the practice of Dentistry at the old place, over the Rock County Bank, corner Main and Milwaukee streets, Janesville, Wis. He is now manufacturing artificial Dentures on Vulcanized Rubber Base. This substance has been thoroughly tested, and found to be superior to many others. It is very strong and light, and is worn with greater ease and comfort than most anything else, and can be afforded at a price which places it within the reach of all. Call and see it. He also continues to make the Continuous Gum Work, which is superior to all others; together with all other styles of work now in use.

MOST EXTRAORDINARY RESULTS
FROM THE USE OF
WINCHESTER'S GENUINE
Hypophosphites
IN THE CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

I need only call the attention of all Consumptive sufferers, whether in advanced or the incipient stage of the disease, to the following extract from a letter addressed to me by a physician of great experience, and extensive practice in Chester Co, Pa. The voluntary evidence of professional men, such as that of Dr. Townsend, ought to convince the most skeptical of the extraordinary efficacy of my preparation of Hypophosphites:

CHATHAM, PA., 3d Month, 26th, 1860.

FRIEND J. WINCHESTER:— * * Thirty-six persons have obtained the medicine from me, twelve of whom have been under my own care. Five of them were, in my opinion, and in the judgment of other physicians, hopeless cases of Phthisis—irritable cough, copious expectorations of a purulent character, night sweats and emaciation. These cases were from one to three years' standing. Auscultation and percussion developed sounds which, taken in connection with other symptoms, gave evidence of a condition from which I have never, in seventeen years' practice, seen a single case recover by any other treatment. * * Under the use of the Hypophosphites, all the bad symptoms ceased; they have gained flesh and strength and health—some of them better than they had enjoyed for seven years previously.

The other cases under my care were in the incipient stage, and in them all symptoms and traces of the disease have disappeared. Of those who were not under my care, I have not heard of a single patient who himself benefitted by the use of the remedy, although in some of them the disease was too far advanced to admit the possibility of recovery.

I presume I am as skeptical in medicines or specifics as most physicians; yet, from the experience I have had in the use of Dr. J. F. Churchill's Remedy for Tuberculosis, I would say to all who have a tendency to that disease—take it, and the sooner the better, before there is any disorganization. * * *
W. W. TOWNSEND, M. D.

The Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda

act with promptness and certainty in every stage of Consumption, and with invariable efficacy in all derangements of the nervous and blood systems, general debility, dyspepsia, asthma, rickets, female complaints, spermatorrhea, in all disorders dependent on imperfect or impaired nutrition, and in all cases of local or constitutional debility. They increase the nervous or vital energy, relieve cough, check night sweats, diminish expectoration, improve the appetite, arrest diarrhœa, promote refreshing sleep, and create new and healthful blood. A fair trial is a certain cure.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation

of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, is the only reliable form of Dr. Churchill's remedy, and is approved by the medical profession generally. Use no other or any remedy containing iron.

PRICES.—In 7 and 16 ounce (pint) bottles, $1 and $2 each.

Dr. Churchill's "Treatise on Consumption," and circular sent gratis to all inquirers. Let no sufferer delay to write for them. Sold by all respectable druggists, and wholesale and retail at the sole general depot, by Dr. S. would also inform the public that at great expense he has obtained the right of using "Goodyear's Celebrated Patent Vulcanised Rubber Base" for artificial teeth, which for lightness, durability, cheapness and comfort, he feels perfectly safe in recommending as being far superior to continuous gum work, and is now prepared, with the aid of his brother, to insert part or whole sets of teeth in all the most improved styles and is determined that his work shall be second to that of no other. All who wish to secure a good set of artificial teeth will do well to call and examine specimens. All work warranted and perfect satisfaction given or no charge. Half-Fare to Chicago.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—The Chicago & North Western railway will sell tickets to Chicago during the republican convention at half-fare—commencing May 14th, good until Saturday evening train from Chicago, May 19th. Yours, &c.,

H. E. PATTISON.

HALF-FARE TICKETS.—We are informed by Mr. Pattison, the agent, that the Chicago and North-Western Railway commenced the sale of half-fare tickets to Chicago, today, and will continue them through the week. This is a much better arrangement than the one first announced, which was to commence the sale Wednesday morning, as it will enable our citizens to arrive in Chicago before the assembling of the convention.

TO HANOVER.—Arrangements have been made by which passenger and freight trains on the Mil. & Miss. road connect with the Galena & Chicago road at the Hanover station, leaving Janesville at 11.30 a. m. and 8.00 p.m. ☞ HALF-FARE TICKETS to Chicago will be sold during the convention, commencing this evening.

FOUND.—A gold sleeve button has been left at this office for an owner.

RESIGNED.—We understand that J. M. Haselton, of this city, has resigned the appointment to take the census of the western assembly district, and that Simon Straus, of the town of Plymouth, has been appointed in his stead.

RUMORED ARREST.—The Alba (Iowa) Sentinel has a rumor that McComb, one of the persons charged with the murder of Miss Harvey, of Rockford, was arrested in Winnebago county, Ill. We doubt the truth of the rumor, as the arrest, if made, would probably have been first known in this section of country.

DOGS IN BELOIT.—Only 49 dogs have been registered and licensed in Beloit. A countless number, (according to the Courier,) of unregistered curs still infest the city.

NO LICENSE.—The common council of Beloit have decided to grant no licenses for the sale of liquors in that city.

CAUTION.—The family of A. F. Cornwall, of Tipton, Iowa, was poisoned recently by eating the leaves of pie plant, cooked for greens. Only Mrs. C. is in a dangerous condition. Let it be remembered by all, that the leaf of the pie-plant is a very dangerous food.

DELEGATES TO CHICAGO.—A large number of delegates and other prominent republicans have arrived in Chicago. The prospect is that the attendance will fully equal expectations.

ALARM OF FIRE.—An alarm of fire, we hear, was given on Sunday morning, by the bell in the episcopal church. We also learn that one of the fast young men of the city was discovered in the belfry of the church striking the bell, probably drunk and thinking it good fun to turn out our citizens and fire companies at night on a false alarm. If what we hear reported is true and susceptible of proof, Justice Comstock ought to administer a prescription to him.

DEDICATION OF THE WIGWAM.—It is estimated that 10,000 persons were present at the dedication of the wigwam in Chicago. Several of the speakers promised did not attend, but there was an enthusiastic meeting.

HEARD FROM AGAIN.—The following paragraphs give information of the progress of an individual tolerably well known in this city:

Dr. Rosenberg, who made himself somewhat notorious here a short time since by his impudence and insults to ladies, is operating at Galena under a new name. At least we judge it to be the same individual by the style of his advertisement and the cuts used in it. He came near being escorted to the cars one night while here, seated on the soft side of a rail, with a body guard to ensure his safe passage.—Rockford Register.

The same scamp figured for a few days in this city, insulting ladies and abusing little girls. The father of one of the little girls on whom he attempted in vain to play his rascally tricks, meeting him at the post office, attacked him without ceremony and gave him a sound drubbing, which he will be apt to remember till the day of his death. He left town very suddenly, with darker eyes than when he came.—Freeport Journal.

A Washington letter-writer indulges in the following pertinent remarks, apropos of the Japanese embassy:

"And, by the way, the question has been raised as to the color of these visitors. Can it be that this administration, which refuses a passport to a black man, will bestow the most flattering attentions upon a set of colored men? If so, where is the distinction? Did the Dred Scott decision only disfranchise Africans, or was our glorious constitution made only for white Americans or Anglo-Saxons? The Japanese do not belong to the "white race," and democrats everywhere claim that every other race is stamped as inferior by the constitution. Shall we bow down before the "colored" Japanese, and make a great national sensation about them, and then turn round and administer additional insults to the race on our soil of the same hue?"

DEPTH OF PLANTING POTATOES.—T. M. Carr, of La Fayette, Ind., relates in the Ohio Farmer, an experiment on this subject. He was stopping with a friend, whom he found planting potatoes, covering lightly, say two or three inches deep, and advised deeper covering. His friend thought not, but allowed him to cover a row his own way. He picked out the largest potatoes, and dropped a row, covering six or eight inches deep. This row did not come up as soon as the rest, but when the plants did come, their superiority was manifested as far as you could see them, and they kept ahead through the season, and at digging time told the whole story, yielding two or three times as much as any other row.

From one to two thousand acres have been re-sown to spring wheat in Crawford county, the winter wheat having "gone up."

For the Daily Gazette.

To the Memory of my Dear Friend Susie Cheney.

The fair sweet flowers are springing
From the green turf o'er thy breast,
And the sunshine floods with glory
The place of thy quiet rest;
And I bow before thy grave, love,
And sprinkle the flowers with tears,
And recall the beautiful memories
That have marked the happy years
In which we have walked together,
Sharing each joy and grief.
Alas! that the bond is broken
So beautiful, and so brief.

In the calm, sweet twilight hour,
When the night comes down to meet
The beautiful day that is passing
Away with its flying feet,
And the star you called your own, love,
Looks down and smiles on me,
As it used to beam on you, love,—
Then my heart goes out to thee;
And I fancy you are near me,
And I almost see the gleam
Of soul-lit eyes, and the waving
Of white hands in my dream.

Oh! we miss thee sadly, darling,
Yet we know that God is love,
Hath taken thee from the sorrows
Of life, to himself above;
And we will follow closely,
The path thy footsteps trod,
Till it leads to the shining portals
Of heaven, to thee, and God.
Then we'll join the swelling anthem
With which high heaven rings,
"All honor, power and glory,
And praise to the King of Kings."

Emerald Grove, May 9th, 1860. CORA MAY.

Isn't it rather an odd fact in natural history that the softest water is caught when it rains the hardest.

Life Insurance.

Those desiring this safest and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

While duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, southwest corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. S. DAGGETT, President.

A. W. KELLOGG, Secretary.

☞ Messrs. Pixley & Harlow, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in this home company, and will also be happy to give information as to the condition thereof, to any one desirous of being informed, in Janesville.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, by BUMP & GRAY. GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, MAY 14, 1860.

The wheat market opened quite firm this morning at Saturday's closing figures, and the demand continued good until despatches were received from the lakeshore, showing a dull market there, when buyers lowered their views fully 3c per bushel, closing at 1 02@1,05 for milling spring, and 1,00@1,02 for shipping. About 1500 bushels changed hands at the above figures. Receipts of coarse grains were light and prices unchanged.

We make up prices as follows:

WINDOW GLASS!

Warranted SUPERIOR TO ANY OTHER in Market!

AT PALMER'S.

THIS Glass, in transparency, strength and uniformity of plate, and in all other qualities sought for in a good article of glass, is equal to the best French manufacture, and is almost entirely free from breakage. The engagements we have entered into with the Messrs. Landgraff, enable us to offer their glass at lower prices than have heretofore been asked for the inferior grades of glass sold in this market.

Call and examine our stock before buying elsewhere and save yourselves from being humbugged by the French, or imposed upon by the venders of an inferior article of American glass. A. PALMER,

Non-Explosive Burning Fluid

USED WITH SAFETY & ECONOMY.

The Best in the Market.

Palmer's Drug and Tea Store.

WE have, for several years past dealt largely in BURNING FLUID, and have always, thus far, kept fully up to the times, in any improvements made in its manufacture. Nearly a year ago, in an appeal in favor of its more general use, based upon the fact that the raw material from which it is made, is mainly the product of our own farms, we publicly announced that there was, at the temperature at which it is generally used, "no explosive power whatever in Burning Fluid, as now made by those who understand the business in which they are engaged. That injury from its use was either the result of gross carelessness, or of undue alarm caused by a belief in its explosive power," &c. Since then we have manufactured and sold thousand of gallons to consumers in this city and vicinity, and if our assumption was an erroneous one, it would undoubtedly have been discovered ere this.

We are prepared to submit our Fluid to any test the public may call for, satisfied that, with ordinary care, no safer, better or more agreeable light can be produced. As we are indebted to no traveling "PROF. GREEN—UP" for the high state of perfection attained by us in its manufacture, we are, as usual, prepared to offer our Fluid at the LOWEST MARKET FIGURES, and to guarantee entire satisfaction in its use, or the money refunded. IN pursuance and by virtue of a judgment and decree of foreclosure and sale of the circuit court of Jefferson county, made on the 23d day of February, A D 1860, in favor of the above named plaintiff, against the above named defendants, and by virtue of an order of reference made by said court on the day and year aforesaid, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder, on at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, on the corner of Main and Milwaukee streets, in front of the banking office of John P Hoyt in the city of Janesville, Rock county, the following described mortgaged premises, to wit: All those certain pieces, parcels or tracts of land situate lying and being in the city of Janesville, in the county of Rock, and in the counties of La Fayette and Green, and state of Wisconsin, and known and distinguished as lots No. fifty (50) and fifty-two (52) in Smith, Bailey and Stone's addition to Janesville, as per recorded plat of the same. Lot No. five (5) in block No. nine (9) in Palmer and Sutherland's addition to Janesville, as per recorded plat of the same, and also about six acres of land heretofore conveyed to said Newell by Elbridge G Fifield and Sarah R Fifield his wife, dated the thirteenth day of July, 1855, and therein particularly described, reference to said deed for a more particular description: said deed is recorded in Rock County Records, August 18th, 1855, in vol. 28 of deeds, page 422, &c. one other piece of land described as follows, to wit: commencing in the line between towns two and three of range 12 east, on the westerly bank of Rock river, thence westerly on said line to such a distance that a line drawn at right angles to said first line to Rock river shall include between said lines and the river, two acres of land. All the above described lands being within the city of Janesville aforesaid. Also the north-west quarter of section number eighteen, township number one north, of range number five east, in said Rock county. The north-east quarter of section No. twenty-three (23) in township number four north, of range number eight east, in Green county. Also, the south-east quarter of the north-east quarter of section number two, and the south half of the north-west quarter, and the north-east quarter of the north-west quarter of section number one in township number two north, of range number 5 east. The north half of the south-east quarter of section number thirty-five; the north-west quarter of the south-west quarter and the south-west quarter of the north-west quarter of section number thirty-six, township number three north, of range number five east. And the east half of the south-west quarter and the south-west quarter of the south-east quarter, and the south-east quarter of the north-west quarter of said section thirty-six in LaFayette county. And also, all that certain piece, parcel or tract of land situate lying and being in the city of Janesville, in the county of Rock and state of Wisconsin, and known and distinguished as being that part of lot two (2) in section one (1) in town two (2) north of range twelve (12) east—bounded on the east by lot one (1) in same section; on the north by the town line between towns two and three (2 and 3) in same range; on the west by land heretofore conveyed by Fifield to Newell, and by Newell to Noggle; on the south by land owned, or formerly owned, by Ira Miltimore—containing over six acres, after deducting eight rods square out of the north-east corner, heretofore sold, together with all the right, title and interest of the said David Noggle in and to the remaining portion of said lot two (2) in said town two (2), being an undivided sixteenth of about fifty-six (56) acres in said section one (1). Via New and Erie R. R.

N. Y. Office, 193 Broadway.

SPECIAL FREIGHT NOTICE!

THIS company having lately made more full and perfect arrangements than heretofore had, beg to call attention to their facilities for the

of all classes of merchandise, between the eastern cities and manufacturing towns, and places west, north-west and south-west. We offer the following advantages:— From and after this date one fast Express Train will be run from Jersey City every day (Sundays expected) direct for Dunkirk, making close connection with our trains on Lake Shore Railroad for all places westward.

Full and complete arrangements have been perfected by which can be made than has heretofore been made or attempted by any freight line. Our business is under the control and management of experienced transportation men. We have capable and responsible agents at all principal points of transfer and delivery, and our freight is carried in cars under our own control—all of which ensure safety and despatch; added to which

Our Rates will at all Times be as Low as by the Regular Railroad Lines.

Great care will be taken to guard against over charges, losses or damages, but should any occur, claim therefor will be promptly examined into and adjusted.

SHIPPING DIRECTIONS.—Mark packages "Valentine Express." Procure Bills of Lading on the day of Shipment. For rates of freight, contracts, bills of lading and directions, apply to IRA JUSTIN, JR., Agent,

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS, - - $450,000

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,500,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

THESE popular BITTERS possess all the nourishing and invigorating properties of PURE OLD BOURBON WHISKEY, and are considered the most efficacious TONIC and STIMULANT, as well as the most agreeable STOMACHIC ever offered to the public. As a Tonic for Old People, delicate Ladies, convalescent invalids, and all weakly people, they cannot be surpassed; in all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their merits over all other Tonics now in use. For LUNG COMPLAINTS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASES AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, they are an invaluable Remedy; and are a certain preventative of CHILLS AND FEVERS.

Republican National Convention.

As the day approaches for the assembling of the convention, the interest in its result increases, and the efforts of the friends of the various candidates for a nomination are stimulated to greater activity. The contest for the nomination is likely to be spirited, but we do not anticipate anything else than a cheerful acquiescence by all after the selection has been made. Beyond all question, the first choice of this state is Wm. H. Seward. This choice has been manifested by unquestioned exhibitions of public sentiment, and by a resolution of the state convention which appointed the delegates. If a majority of the convention about to assemble shall indicate a preference for some other candidate, we do not look for a factious and useless adherence of the Wisconsin delegates to the man of their choice; their votes ought to be wisely directed to some other known and tried exponent of the principles of the republican party; but until the nomination of the distinguished New York senator is shown to be impossible, or injudicious, in view of the public feeling in other republican localities, the republicans of Wisconsin will expect all their delegates to give a faithful and true expression to their own feelings and preference. Nothing short or less than this will satisfy them, or discharge with fidelity the trust committed to the delegates.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.—The Madison Journal has a suggestion in relation to the census of this state that seems to us timely and proper. In the list of questions necessary to be answered by the head of each family is one of this character:—"In the first place, it is necessary to write down the name of every person whose usual place of abode, on the first day of June, 1860, was in the family."

The Journal suggests that it is proper, as well as important, to include all bona fide members of the family, though they may be temporarily absent from the state. Our state ought not to loose from the aggregate of her population, and suffer thereby for ten years to come in the representation in congress and in her electoral vote, those who have rushed for Pike's Peak this spring, with no intention to make that country a permanent abode; who do not propose to forfeit residence or the right of voting in Wisconsin.

If this rule is adopted, and we cannot see why it should not be, a little care on the part of the deputy marshals, and forethought by those giving in the names of their respective households, may secure the enumeration of large numbers of our population otherwise liable to be omitted.

GERMAN REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION.—A national convention of German republicans, consisting of three delegates from each state, will meet in Chicago today. Most of the northern and some of the southern states will be represented.—The object of this convention is not to nominate a candidate for the Presidency, but to compare views, and agree upon a basis of principles which will guide them in extending their support to the nominee who may be placed before the country.

INDIGNANT.—The Milwaukee News is highly indignant about the presecution of Marshal Lewis for illegal voting. It gives free vent to its feelings by declaring that it "had its origin in the worst passions of low and degenerate hearts, who resorted to this method to punish the United States Marshal for not appointing the 1001 applicants to take the census, among whom were some who had the smell of the penitentiary upon them yet. It was amusing to see the sore heads hang around the court room anxious to witness a conviction; we counted six of these worthies in the criminal box at one time, and the expression of their countenances was not unbecoming the seat they occupied."

As the News is a voluntary witness, we are not disposed to disbelieve this testimony of friends it ought, and, probably, does, know thoroughly.

CONGRESSIONAL PRINTING—Mr. Wendell, the congressional printer, in his testimony before the Covode committee, gave the following statement of the total cost of the printing and binding for congress and the executive departments for the past six years:

Description of work.	Cost.	Average profit, 50 per cent.
Thirty-third Congress,........	$1,033,360 76	511,680 38
Thirty-fourth Congress,.......	915,167 42	453,583 71
Thirty-fifth Congress,.........	628,851 23	314,425 61
Total,.....................	$2,797,499 41	$1,283,689 61
Executive binding (est'd)	230,120 00	116,060 00
Total,.....................	$3,027,619 41	$1,387,749 70

LARGE TRAINS.—The evening trains to-night over the Michigan Central and the Michigan Southern roads will be very large ones. The Chicago Tribune of Saturday morning says that a gentleman who arrived there Friday was informed by one of the officers of the Great Western Railway, at Hamilton, that fifteen hundred tickets had already been sold for the train through, to arrive in Chicago to-night on the Michigan Central Railroad at 10 P. M.,—sixteen hours from Suspension Bridge.

It is expected that Michigan avenue will be illuminated to greet the arrival of these delegates.

DROUGHT IN NEW ENGLAND.—An extensive drought is prevailing throughout New England. In New Hampshire, cattle are driven miles for water. Fires in the woods are also doing much damage.

The Troubles of the Douglas Politicians.

The "irrepressible conflict" which appeared at Charleston was nothing in comparison to what will occur at Baltimore on the 18th of June. There will be a new set of delegates elected in the place of the seceders, while the seceders themselves give out that they intend to "come back" and claim their places. Here is a chance for a row. If they do, it is not at all impossible that they will be admitted, for the New York delegation appear to be able to decide the question, as they did the continuance of the two-thirds rule, after the seceders left. The Albany Atlas gives out that "men are of little consequence," and that they must nominate a man most likely to win popular favor. The New Yorkers are after the spoils, and will be perfectly willing to drop Douglas, if necessary to accomplish that object. Our north-western democrats have risked all the chances on Douglas—if he goes under, they sink with him. This kind of fidelity may be very admirable as a sentiment, but New York politicians do not believe in it, nor do they practice it. The Atlas enforces this idea, and it will be interesting for the Wisconsin democrats to read what it says. It remarks that "no pride of opinion or mere self-will in the matter of selecting a standard-bearer in this important presidential campaign should defeat all candidates and prevent any nomination." This means, that when the time comes, the New Yorkers are determined "to go in on the winning side."

While the New Yorkers, who hold the fate of Douglas in their hands, talk in this way, the Washington Star, another democratic organ, compares Douglas to Aaron Burr, and fancies that it finds a striking affinity in the character of the two men, as well as a strong resemblance in the circumstances in which they are placed. Burr, it says, was surrounded and abetted by the most unscrupulous band of disappointed office seekers, disbanded military men and would-be-plunder-mongers that the country contained, and he sought to defeat the evident will of the democratic majority, who sustained Jefferson, and through the assistance of such allies to seize upon the presidency by a coup de main. "There was then as little pretence that he was the choice of the democracy for the presidency, though sustained by them for the vice-presidency, as at this time there is a substantial reason to believe that Douglas is the presidential choice of the constituents of the effective portion of the late Charleston convention—quite as little. Yet he, Burr, by dint of such assurance, recklessness and cunning, on the part of all the discontented and unprincipled elements engaged in politics, nominally on the democratic side, then banded together, came quite as near cheating the democracy out of the presidency as Douglas came, a day or two since, to cheating them out of the nomination."

With a democratic newspaper talking in this way, it is apparent that the war of Charleston will be transferred to Baltimore with re-doubled fury. We think that Forney clearly foreshadows what is to take place. He says: "There is to be no quarter shown him, [Douglas] or any of his friends. He is to be offered up as a sacrifice, and they are to be hunted out of public life. The fact is, no northern man who dares to differ from the pro slavery leaders can ever hope to regain their confidence. He is foredoomed, and this forever."

HOUSTON FOR PRESIDENT.—A large meeting of the friends of Gen. Houston from all parts of the Union was held at the Metropolitan Hotel, last week, after the nomination of Mr. Bell, and the Baltimore, Charleston and all other conventions were repudiated, and a determination expressed that the people will make their own choice for president.

THE SECESSION LEADER.—Yancy, the leader of the secessionists, is a native of Troy, N. Y. His mother subsequently married Rev. Dr. Beman of Troy, and the queer freaks as told of that lady would fill a volume. Yancy was sent to Williams College, but no college could hold him, and the faculty were glad to get rid of him. Yancy, in South Carolina, shot his uncle dead, and was imprisoned for the act fifteen months, and then was sent to congress, where he fought a bloodless duel with Mr. Clingman.—Madison Argus.

A former resident of Troy, who is thoroughly familiar with the personal history of its prominent citizens, tells us that Mr. Yancy is a native of Georgia. His mother, it is true, was the wife of Dr. Beman, but she was a native of Virginia, and was married in Georgia while the Doctor was a teacher in that state. Mrs. Beman, at the time of her marriage in Georgia, was a widow, and Mr. Yancy was a child by her first husband.

DOUGLAS PAINTED BY A DEMOCRATIC FRIEND.—The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Tribune says:

"The discussion in the senate to-day, between Messrs. Clingman and Benjamin, was exceedingly rich. Clingman, who represents Douglas, said he would endorse any of the platforms presented at Charleston, but he did not think the majority platform a politic one. Benjamin scored him roundly for his willingness to throw aside principle in this contest, and went on to expose the duplicity of the Douglasites at Charleston, who, he said, while privately giving assurances to the southern men that they considered them right in theory, tried to get the convention to adopt a platform which could be construed one way in the north, and another way in the south. He gave it as his opinion that before any of them were six weeks older they would find that the democratic party would be re-united upon a platform satisfactory to the south. If it was not, he said he would join "any third party who would guarantee the rights of the south." His speech was one of the most powerful efforts I have ever heard in the senate. He roasted and basted Clingman terribly. Poor Clingman has a hard time of it. He is the only senator from the south who stands up for Douglas, and he gets awfully abused for it."

RAILROADS IN CONNECTICUT.—The whole length of railroads built within the state is 902 miles, constructed at a cost of $19,831,532 04, of which $18,727,717 31 has been paid in. The gross income has been $3,527,903 79, which is an increase of $409,921 64. The net income has been $1,251,797 51, or four per cent. on the cost, showing an increase of $176,392 59.

For the Daily Gazette.

TRULY THEY WERE GREAT MEN.—A Mohammed, who founded a religion which overshadows nearly two-thirds of the entire population of the world up to the present time. An Alexander, who conquered the world by his mighty armies. A Bonaparte, who so far dethroned the ecclesiastical power of the world as to cause the pope to bow to his command. A George Washington, who laid the foundation of the great American republic, and led her armies on to a successful and glorious victory. But a greater benefactor of mankind than either of these will be the man who shall teach how two kernels of wheat may be grown on the same amount of land, and with no great amount of manual labor than it now requires to raise one. J. B. PEMBER.

With this as a motto, I will now proceed to give to the Gazette and Free Press my experience, founded on actual experiments, on the nature and peculiar character of wheat. Wheat has been, is now, and will continue to be the great staple product of our country for commercial wealth; it is the main and leading crop for home consumption: it is the greatest component factor of bread—the real staple of life not only to this, but to foreign nations. Hence arises the great necessity of its cultivation. Where ought it to be grown? On such portions of the earth's surface as possess natural elements for its growth and maturity; and by whom? those who love to gain their bread by the sweat of their brow, with a cheerful heart and smiling countenance, having large heads, well developed brain, a natural love to experiment, and then to profit by, and at the same time to divide the practical knowledge they have thus gained, with others, for the common benefit of all who desire to learn: for, if we would be great, we must be learned, not only theoretically, but practically,—not only that which reads well on paper in the parlor, but that which works well on the land, both in the sunshine and in the shade.

First, almost every kernel of wheat that is properly matured will vegetate even under very unfavorable weather, if covered in the ground at a sufficient depth to retain moisture enough to swell the kernel, which requires but little. Whether sown in the cold of winter, the moderation of spring, the extreme heat of summer, or the maturing season of fall, very few kernels fail to have and to retain their germinating powers until the weather admits of a growth.—Now for the proof: When but a boy, I went to labor for a man of threescore years, who, by the by, was one of the most successful practical wheat-growers I ever knew, living in the western portion of the state of New York. His age had given him chances for information superior to those of most men, and his natural and cultivated turn of mind had, not unworthily, placed him in the front rank of practical and profitable experimental men of any age. His land for spring wheat was fitted already for the seed in the fall; he then sought to take advantage of the January and February thaw to sow his wheat, as it would then come in contact with the ground at once, which he thought was best, as it was not as likely to be picked up by birds, or blown away with the snow. Then, as soon as the frost was gone from the surface so that he could, he would take his team and a heavy brush and go over the ground thoroughly, and that finished the seeding. The freezing and thawing which followed would leave the land light and lively, even though wet when brushed. If he failed from any cause to sow his seed during the thaw, he would seek a light snow in the latter part of winter, as it was more convenient to see where it was sown. His wheat was sure to grow, not having failed for many years. It was earlier, plumper, lighter in color, and heavier than that of his neighbors', sown in the usual way, and on the same soil. Another proof is this: Where threshing is done in the winter, there will be sure to come up a thick mat of wheat, though no pains are taken to cover it up; or, perhaps, it is on sward land,—at all events, on land unplowed and untirely unfitted for the seed. Another proof is, that upon actual experiment, made by myself last spring, of twenty-nine kernels, every one grew. Another of the present spring: I commenced sowing wheat the eighth day of March; the ninth it froze, and continued so until the fourteenth, when I commenced to sow again. It continued to freeze every night to the depth of from two to four inches,—only one night to the depth of four inches,—and did not get clear of frost through the day, when I would sow in the afternoon. I soon found my wheat was beginning to sprout. I continued to sow, and to examine my wheat each day, and, notwithstanding the freezing, it grew from one-eighth to one-fourth of an inch every twenty-four hours; and in the many hundreds of kernels I have taken up and examined, not one was found to fail that was covered one half-inch with dirt. After my first wheat had been sown five weeks, I took from the ground twenty-four kernels which had never been covered with dirt—exposed to the wet and dry, the heat and cold, continually for the whole time, with no appearance of sprouting, but apparently bleached and dead. I planted them in about one and a half inches of dirt, and in a few days every one of them commenced to sprout; soon the spire was seen above the ground, and they have continued to grow finely. I likewise sought ten that had sprouted, and afterwards, on account of cold, drouth and insufficient earth, dwindled and dried up entirely. I planted them the same as the others; eight out of the ten sprouted again and came up, and are doing well. With these and many other proofs on this point, I have become satisfied that there need be no fear for the growing of wheat that has not been badly injured by heat and moisture, if properly sown and covered with earth, even at unusual seasons of the year. I will now leave this part of the question for the present, as I may have recourse to it at some later time.

Next I will take up the peculiar characteristics and manner of the vegetation of wheat. The first perceivable change is the softening of the main body of the kernel by moisture gathered from the earth. The next is the starting of the main tap root, which proceeds from the end of the kernel, and at the center of the chit. This is soon followed by two more, one on each side of the main root; these usually grow from one to two inches in length before the spire or stock blade is seen to start, which starts directly opposite the first roots of the kernel, is large and healthy, and if the influences of moisture, nutrition and heat are favorable, the number of roots will increase to five or seven—rarely if ever numbering more. Their length and growth is materially governed by the depth of tillage, of which I shall have occasion to speak hereafter. I have seen them ten inches long, with almost numberless fibers of different lengths—on deep tillage—when the spire was not more than three inches long; while earlier sown and larger spires—on shallow tillage—had more than five inches of length. The latter had decided advantages of weather and fertility of soil. I have talked with some very good farmers, who think these roots would run to the length of two feet, and they give me very good reasons for believing thus. I find a variety of opinions on the subject; but one thing is certain, I find less difference of opinion among men who have carefully examined and made thorough experimental tests. On the contrary, I find but very little disagreement between those who have founded their faith on realities. The greatest discord always appears to be between the ignorant and the learned, the careless, unobserving and close practical observer, whose judgment is founded on reason and the great law of government, as found to exist in Nature and Nature's God.

In my next I shall speak of the true depth to cover the seed, and the formation of the main spire and its numerous adjuncts. In the intermediate time I would ask that the curious, the inquisitive, or the skeptic to go to his field and examine as far as he can, and see if what I have already said is not true, for I would not ask to arraign my cause before a more safe, powerful, or even fearful tribunal than that of public opinion in this enlightened age and community in which we live.

JOHN B. PEMBER.

Johnstown, May, 1860.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

It is said that the Quakers are gradually disappearing from England. Two hundred years ago their proportion in Great Britain was about one in every one hundred and thirty inhabitants. At present they do not count one in a thousand.

At the municipal election in Philadelphia on Tuesday, over 71,000 votes were polled, of which the democratic candidate for city comptroller had 35,720, and the peoples' candidate 35,713, a majority for the former of only 7 votes.

The Messrs. Gates & Co., of Chicago, have already sold $8,000 worth of their stampers and crushers for the Pike's Peak gold mines, and their orders for machinery of that kind reached $10,000 on Saturday last.

The young ladies of Hopedale, Ill., met to trim a church for some festival occasion, and two men named Findley and McDowell, getting into a fight relative to an alleged insult toward one of the ladies, McDowell drew a knife and killed Findley on the spot.

During the year ending June 30th, 1859, Wisconsin paid postage to the amount of $180,238.

On the first of May, Col. Balcom, of Stiles, laid on the Oconto Pioneer's table, a cucumber measuring thirteen inches in length and five inches in circumference, which he raised in his garden.

Philadelphia citizens lose over one million dollars by the recent decision of the U. S. supreme court, of the celebrated Santillan land case, in which the San Francisco Land Co. claimed a large tract of land adjoining San Francisco. The shares of the company have sold as high as $5,000, their par value being $300, and a great many being held in Philadelphia. The court decided against the company.

Compliments carried to an extravagant extent become offences. There is a material difference between prettily asking for a lock of hair, and taking the whole scalp.

It may be fairly contended that inveterate laziness is the most effective labor-saving machine ever invented.

A BOOK EVERY MAN SHOULD HAVE.—There is no doubt that an almost endless amount of litigation and large expense could be saved to the community, were such ready, explicit and reliable means of information as the "LEGAL GUIDE" and "Business Man's Assistant," placed in the hands of every person, male and female, who have anything to do with business matters, on whatever scale. The farmer or the merchant, the professional man, the woman left to her own resources and her own support, may literally have their own lawyer always by them in one of these admirable little compilations, containing state laws, the most approved legal and business forms, and a complete glossary of legal terms.

The work has just been published in law style of binding by Messrs. J. A. Colby & Co., No. 118 Randolph street, Chicago, and is destined to receive the wide adoption its merits deserve. Every one should have it, and the public in purchasing of the publishers will enjoy the widely celebrated advantage of that house. We advise our readers to send to send to Mr. Colby for the Legal Guide, price $1.00, 21 cents in addition, if sent by mail, to pay postage, or send for a descriptive catalogue which is mailed free upon application.—Chicago Press and Tribune.

TIME TO PLANT.—Some twenty years since, I thought it desirable to finish planting before the 20th of May. Not so now. Were I obliged to fix some one day when my field planting should be done, it would not be before the 20th, as in most instances the ground is not sufficiently warm till after that time.

The old Indian rule on Cape Cod was, to plant corn when the oak trees got into the grey. That rule I hold to be safe, and as sure as any, as it indicates the forwardness of the season.

What took place at our last meeting warns me that I shall be on the unpopular side by saying that where clay, rather than sand, predominates, in quite one half of our seasons, it is quite as well, and in many instances much better, to plant corn later rather than before the middle of May. I am sure that very many of the grevious complaints we hear uttered about seed corn rotting in the ground, would be unknown if the planting was not done before the ground was in a proper condition to receive the seed. It is an idle dogma to tell me I cannot grow dent corn of the very first quality, if it is not planted before the 20th of May. Why, sir, I know that I have planted yellow dent corn after the 20th of May, and got twice the quantity, and a far better quality, than did several of my neighbors who planted theirs before the 15th.

Office in Union Passenger Depot.

[A good share of a somewhat lengthy report is devoted to the Japanese embassy, which, however, had not arrived at Washington. Among the other important events sent us is the burning of a girl in Troy by a fluid lamp. Not a solitary word from Chicago.—EDS. GAZETTE.]

Tribune's Washington Correspondence, 13th.—It is now ascertained that Mr. Walker, correspondent of the New York Express here, received $2,500 of the money appropriated by Mr. Wendell to carry the English bill through the house. He will be examined to-morrow forenoon or next day.

Attorney General Black has notified Mr. Covode's committee that he desires to be present at the next examination of Mr. Schbatel. A lively time may be expected.

Robt. J. Walker has now obtained all his papers relating to Kansas, and is prepared to close his testimony before the Covode committee. Among them is said to be the original of his inaugural address, with interliving made by the President's own hand in regard to submitting the constitution to the people.

The southern address, urging the seceding delegates to return, was written by Mr. Toombs, and characterized by his strong will throughout. Modifications were suggested but nane were adopted, for if it had not been signed as prepared, Mr. Toombs would doubtless have issued it on his own responsibility.

AUGUSTA, GA., May 13.

At a democratic meeting at Atlanta on Saturday, the postmaster defended the Charleston secessionists, and denounced Douglas as a traitor to the democracy and the south. B. C. Yancey made a lengthy and similar speech. The national Baltimore democracy was defended by Col. Guskill. The meeting adjourned for one week.

The Market.

NEW YORK, May 14.

Flour dull, heavy and 5a10c lower, 5,30 super state, 5,30 super western. Wheat dull and heavy, prime Milwaukee club can be bought at 1,28, market nominally 1a2c lower.

DON'T LIKE HIM.—The Waukesha County Democrat takes the defeat of Douglas at Charleston in a very submissive spirit. It says:

"The utter impolicy of pressing the name of Douglas is now apparent to the most superficial politician. The idea of rewarding a man for ruining you, would be considered ridiculous as a business proposition. How very absurd, then, the project of the northwest's being a unit in favor of giving the presidential nomination to a man whose measures and policy have changed six of the strongest democratic states in the Union, to six more reliable black republican states than New England herself can boast? * * * We utter what we feel when we assert, in our judgement there could not fall upon the country a more dire calamity than the nomination and election of Mr. Douglas."

In another view of the case, the Democrat is equally resigned. Speaking of the Kansas-Nebraska bill, it remarks:

"Mr. Douglas betrayed the north in his measure, the covert the design of which was to have Kansas admitted as a slave state into the Union. This fatal measure revolutionized the democratic party in the north west where it had its strongest lodgment.—To obtain a re election to the United States senate from Illinois, Mr. Douglas shrank from carrying out the logical conclusions of the policy he inaugurated,—viz.: in the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton constitution,—and thus betrayed his pledges to the south. The south has had sufficient self-respect and dignity to resent and punish the treachery, and in doing so she has incidentally rendered great service to the Union and the cause of sound public morals. It affords us pleasure to accord her the praises which are her due. May the sordid and truckling politicians of the northwest and of the Union, profit by the lesson."

William S. Bailey.

SIRS:—For years past I have given to Wm S. STRIPED BUG.—The season is rapidly approaching for the planting of melons, cucumbers and squashes; a word, therefore, on the different remedies used as preventives, cures, etc., of the striped bug may not be uninteresting to some of our readers.

Within the last few years a number of remedies have been published from various sources, such as chip water, wood ashes, soot, scotch snuff, tobacco dried and powdered fine, chamomile flowers, etc. Some of the above remedies do not keep the bugs away during their applications, others but for a short time. The difficulty in the use of the most of them is, their removal from the plants by dews or rains, and therefore to insure success frequent applications are necessary. For a number of years we have used charcoal dust, putting about one quart on the melon or cucumber hills before the plants are up; it has invariably kept the plants from being injured by the insects. Last year we used the Persian Insect Powder on a few hills of cucumbers, and with satisfactory results—by two applications we saved all the vines.

A few weeks since, a gentlemen at the Farmers' Club, American Institute, stated that he had kept the bugs from the vines last year by syringing them with a solution of aloes. The formula he gave was—dissolve half an ounce of aloes in a gallon of water, and it will be of sufficient strength. Syringe the vines once or twice during the early stage of their growth. We have not tried this remedy but intend to do so this season.—Cor. Working Farmer.

SEQUEL TO A TRAGEDY.—Our readers will generally remember the Mercer and Herberton tragedy that occurred in Philadelphia many years since. A man of some wealth and social position named Herberton, had seduced Miss Mercer, a young woman of seventeen, and refused to repair the matter by marriage. A brother took vengeance into his own hands, waylaid the seducer in a ferry boat and shot him dead. For this he was tried for murder and acquitted. Since that period he led a wild career, and finally about two years since, was shot in a restaurant in Philadelphia. The sister was married a few years subsequent to the death of Herberton, lived unhappily with her husband, was divorced, and we find her death recorded in an exchange. The whole family have now passed away.

MOST EXTRAORDINARY RESULTS

FROM THE USE OF

WINCHESTER'S GENUINE

Hypophosphites

IN THE CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

I need only call the attention of all Consumptive sufferers, whether in advanced or the incipient stage of the disease, to the following extract from a letter addressed to me by a physician of great experience, and extensive practice in Chester Co., Pa. The voluntary evidence of professional men, such as that of Dr. Townsend, ought to convince the most skeptical of the extraordinary efficacy of my preparation of Hypophosphites:

CHATHAM, PA., 3d Month, 26th, 1860.

FRIEND J. WINCHESTER:—* * Thirty-six persons have obtained the medicine from me, twelve of whom have been under my own care. Five of them were, in my opinion, and in the judgment of other physicians, hopeless cases of Phthisis—irritable cough, copious expectorations of a purulent character, night sweats and emaciation. These cases were from one to three years' standing. Auscultation and percussion developed sounds which, taken in connection with other symptoms, gave evidence of a condition from which I have never, in seventeen years' practice, seen a single case recover by any other treatment. * * Under the use of the Hypophosphites, all the bad symptoms ceased; they have gained flesh and strength and health—some of them better than they had enjoyed for seven years previously.

The other cases under my care were in the incipient stage, and in them all symptoms and traces of the disease have disappeared. Of those who were not under my care, I have not heard of a single patient who himself benefitted by the use of the remedy, although in some of them the disease was too far advanced to admit the possibility of recovery.

I presume I am as skeptical in medicines or specifics as most physicians; yet, from the experience I have had in the use of Dr. J. F. Churchill's Remedy for Tuberculosis, I would say to all who have a tendency to that disease—take it, and the sooner the better, before there is any disorganization. * *

W. W. TOWNSEND, M. D.

The Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda

act with promptness and certainty in every stage of Consumption, and with invariable efficacy in all derangements of the nervous and blood systems, general debility, dyspepsia, asthma, rickets, female complaints, spermatorrhea, in all disorders dependent on imperfect or impaired nutrition, and in all cases of local or constitutional debility. They increase the nervous or vital energy, relieve cough, check night sweats, diminish expectoration, improve the appetite, arrest diarrhœa, promote refreshing sleep, and create new and healthful blood. A fair trial is a certain cure.

Winchester's Genuine Preparation

of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, is the only reliable form of Dr. Churchill's remedy, and is approved by the medical profession generally. Use no other or any remedy containing iron.

PRICES.—In 7 and 16 ounce (pint) bottles, $1 and $2 each.

Half-Fare to Chicago.

Editors Gazette:—The Chicago & North Western railway will sell tickets to Chicago during the republican convention at half-fare—commencing May 14th, good until Saturday evening train from Chicago, May 19th. Yours, &c.,

H. E. PATTISON.

Half-Fare Tickets.—We are informed by Mr. Pattison, the agent, that the Chicago and North-Western Railway commenced the sale of half-fare tickets to Chicago, to-day, and will continue them through the week. This is a much better arrangement than the one first announced, which was to commence the sale Wednesday morning, as it will enable our citizens to arrive in Chicago before the assembling of the convention.

To Hanover.—Arrangements have been made by which passenger and freight trains on the Mil. & Miss. road connect with the Galena & Chicago road at the Hanover station, leaving Janesville at 11.30 a. m. and 8.00 p.m. ☞ Half-Fare Tickets to Chicago will be sold during the convention, commencing this evening.

Found.—A gold sleeve button has been left at this office for an owner.

Resigned.—We understand that J. M. Haselton, of this city, has resigned the appointment to take the census of the west ern assembly district, and that Simon Strans, of the town of Plymouth, has been appointed in his stead.

Rumored Arrest.—The Alba(Iowa)Sentinel has a rumor that McComb, one of the persons charged with the murder of Miss Harvey, of Rockford, was arrested in Winnebago county, Ill. We doubt the truth of the rumor, as the arrest, if made, would probably have been first known in this section of country.

Dogs in Beloit.—Only 49 dogs have been registered and licensed in Beloit. A countless number, (according to the Courier,) of unregistered curs still infest the city.

No License.—The common council of Beloit have decided to grant no licenses for the sale of liquors in that city.

Caution.—The family of A. F. Cornwall, of Tipton, Iowa, was poisoned recently by eating the leaves of pie plant, cooked for greens. Only Mrs. C. is in a dangerous condition. Let it be remembered by all, that the leaf of the pie-plant is a very dangerous food.

Delegates to Chicago.—A large number of delegates and other prominent republicans have arrived in Chicago. The prospect is that the attendance will fully equal expectations.

Alarm of Fire.—An alarm of fire, we hear, was given on Sunday morning, by the bell in the episcopal church. We also learn that one of the fast young men of the city was discovered in the belfry of the church striking the bell, probably drunk and thinking it good fun to turn out our citizens and fire companies at night on a false alarm. If what we hear reported is true and susceptible of proof, Justice Comstock ought to administer a prescription to him.

Dedication of the Wigwam.—It is estimated that 10,000 persons were present at the dedication of the wigwam in Chicago. Several of the speakers promised did not attend, but there was an enthusiastic meeting.

Heard from Again.—The following paragraphs give information of the progress of an individual tolerably well known in this city:

Dr. Rosenberg, who made himself somewhat notorious here a short time since by his impudence and insults to ladies, is operating at Galena under a new name. At least we judge it to be the same individual by the style of his advertisement and the cuts used in it. He came near being escorted to the cars one night while here, seated on the soft side of a rail, with a body guard to ensure his safe passage.—Rockford Register.

The same scamp figured for a few days in this city, insulting ladies and abusing little girls. The father of one of the little girls on whom he attempted in vain to play his rascally tricks, meeting him at the post office, attacked him without ceremony and gave him a sound drubbing, which he will be apt to remember till the day of his death. He left town very suddenly, with darker eyes than when he came.—Freeport Journal.

A Washington letter-writer indulges in the following pertinent remarks, apropos of the Japanese embassy:

"And, by the way, the question has been raised as to the color of these visitors. Can it be that this administration, which refuses a passport to a black man, will bestow the most flattering attentions upon a set of colored men? If so, where is the distinction? Did the Dred Scott decision only disfranchise Africans, or was our glorious constitution made only for white Americans or Anglo-Saxons? The Japanese do not belong to the "white race," and democrats everywhere claim that every other race is stamped as inferior by the constitution. Shall we bow down before the "colored" Japanese, and make a great national sensation about them, and then turn round and administer additional insults to the race on our soil of the same hue?"

Depth of Planting Potatoes.—T. M. Carr, of La Fayette, Ind., relates in the Ohio Farmer, an experiment on this subject. He was stopping with a friend, whom he found planting potatoes, covering lightly, say two or three inches deep, and advised deeper covering. His friend thought not, but allowed him to cover a row his own way. He picked out the largest potatoes, and dropped a row, covering six or eight inches deep. This row did not come up as soon as the rest, but when the plants did come, their superiority was manifested as far as you could see them, and they kept ahead through the season, and at digging time told the whole story, yielding two or three times as much as any other row.

From one to two thousand acres have been re-sown to spring wheat in Crawford county, the winter wheat having "gone up."

For the Daily Gazette.

To the Memory of my Dear Friend Susie Cheney.

The fair sweet flowers are springing
From the green turf o'er thy breast,
And the sunshine floods with glory
The place of thy quiet rest;
And I bow before thy grave, love,
And sprinkle the flowers with tears,
And recall the beautiful memories
That have marked the happy years
In which we have walked together,
Sharing each joy and grief.
Alas! that the bond is broken
So beautiful, and so brief.

In the calm, sweet twilight hour,
When the night comes down to meet
The beautiful day that is passing
Away with its flying feet,
And the star you called your own, love,
Looks down and smiles on me,
As it used to beam on you, love,—
Then my heart goes out to thee;
And I fancy you are near me,
And I almost see the gleam
Of soul-lit eyes, and the waving
Of white hands in my dream.

Oh! we miss thee sadly, darling,
Yet we know that God in love,
Hath taken thee from the sorrows
Of life, to himself above;
And we will follow closely,
The path thy footsteps trod,
Till it leads to the shining portals
Of heaven, to thee, and God.
Then we'll join the swelling anthem
With which high heaven rings,
"All honor, power and glory,
And praise to the King of Kings."

Emerald Grove, May 9th, 1860. Cora May.

Life Insurance.

Those desiring this safest and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

While duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, southwest corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. S. DAGGETT, President.

A. W. Kellogg, Secretary.

☞ Messrs. Pixley & Harlow, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in this home company, and will also be happy to give information as to the condition thereof, to any one desirous of being informed, in Janesville.

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, by BUMP & GRAY. GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, May 14, 1860.

The wheat market opened quite firm this morning at Saturday's closing figures, and the demand continued good until despatches were received from the lakeshore, showing a dull market there, when buyers lowered their views fully 3c per bushel, closing at 1.02@1,05 for milling spring, and 1,00@1,02 for shipping. About 1500 bushels changed hands at the above figures. Receipts of coarse grains were light and prices unchanged.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—white winter 1.05a1.12½; good to choice milling spring at 1,02a1,05; common to fair shipping, 1.00a1,02.

BARLEY—in good request at 45a58c per 50 lbs., fair to choice.

CORN—shelled, per 60 lbs., 42a44c; ear per 70 lbs. 30a35c.

OATS—in good request at 28a30 per bushel.

RYE—quotable at 60a65 per 60 lbs. None coming forward.

POTATOES—plenty at 30a40 per bushel for good to choice ones.

TIMOTHY SEED—scarce and in demand at 2.25a2.60 per 46 lbs.

BUTTER—plenty at 11a13.

EGGS—in fair demand at 7a8 per dozen.

HIDES—green, 6a6½; dry flint, 12a14.

FLOUR—spring at retail, 2.60, winter, 3.50.

POULTRY—chickens, 6a7; turkeys, 7a8.

Chicago Market.

Monday Evening, May 12.

Flour, 100 bbls. Beloit extra, 4,50 on track. No. 1 spring wheat 1,11½; No. 2 1,10; club 1,15. Corn, 51¼ a54. Oats, 32a34. Rye, 85a86. Barley, 70a71.

Non-Explosive Burning Fluid

USED WITH SAFETY & ECONOMY.

The Best in the Market.

Palmer's Drug and Tea Store.

WE have, for several years past dealt largely in BURNING FLUID, and have always, thus far, kept fully up to the times, in any improvements made in its manufacture. Nearly a year ago, in an appeal in favor of its more general use, based upon the fact that the raw material from which it is made, is mainly the product of our own farms, we publicly announced that there was, at the temperature at which it is generally used, "no explosive power whatever in Burning Fluid, as now made by those who understand the business in which they are engaged. That injury from its use was either the result of gross carelessness, or of undue alarm caused by a belief in its explosive power," &c. Since then we have manufactured and sold thousand of gallons to consumers in this city and vicinity, and if our assumption was an erroneous one, it would undoubtedly have been discovered ere this.

We are prepared to submit our Fluid to any test the public may call for, satisfied that, with ordinary care, no safer, better or more agreeable light can be produced. As we are indebted to no traveling "Prof. Green—Oil" for the high state of perfection attained by us in its manufacture, we are, as usual, prepared to offer our Fluid at the LOWEST MARKET FIGURES, and to guarantee entire satisfaction in its use, or the money refunded.
